THE MANAGEMENT

Bum Bright
General Partner

H. R. (Harvey Roberts) Bright, better known as "Bum," has smoothly guided the Cowboys into a new era since his limited partnership acquired the club in the spring of 1984.

Bright put together the ownership group and masterminded the complicated purchase of the Cowboys from founder Clint Murchison, Jr. Bright serves as general partner of the limited partnership.

With Bright at the helm, the Cowboys began their second 25 years by moving into their state-of-the-art headquarters and training facility. Bright also guided the renovation of Texas Stadium, including the addition of 114 Crown Suites and the installation of two DiamondVision color scoreboards.

Born in Muskogee, Okla., Bum moved to Dallas with his family when he was eight years old. He earned a degree in petroleum engineering from Texas A&M University in 1943 before serving 2½ years as a captain in the Army Corps of Engineers.

Bright entered the oil business following his military service. He is senior partner of Bright & Company, a Dallas-based oil and gas production firm. He also has extensive holdings in the banking industry.

Bright is chairman of the board of directors of Children's Medical Center of Dallas and past chairman of the board of regents of Texas A&M. He and wife Peggy live in Dallas. Bum has four children — Carol, Margaret, Christopher and Clay.

Tex Schramm
President-General Manager

The trademark stability of the Cowboys' front office team traces to the leadership of the club's first and only general manager, Texas E. Schramm.

Managing partner of the Cowboys' ownership group, Schramm has directed the daily operation of the Cowboys since 1960 when Clint Murchison, Jr., founded the franchise.

A native of Los Angeles with family roots in San Antonio, Texas, Schramm earned a degree in journalism from the University of Texas. He joined the Los Angeles Rams as publicity director in 1947 after two years as a sports writer and sports editor at the Austin American-Statesman. In a 10-year career with the Rams he rose from publicity director, to assistant to the president, to general manager. During his tenure he brought Pete Rozelle into the NFL as the Rams' publicity director.

Schramm left the Rams in 1957 to join CBS Television as assistant director of sports. He put together the first network telecast of the Olympics, but, following those Winter Games of 1960 in Squaw Valley, Calif., Schramm returned to pro football upon being hired by Murchison to run the NFL's new Dallas franchise.

After the Cowboys won Super Bowl XII, Schramm was named NFL Executive of the Year by The Sporting News, and in 1978 he received the Bert Bell Award for outstanding executive leadership in the NFL. Tex serves as chairman of the NFL's Competition Committee and on the executive committee of the NFL Management Council.

Tex and wife Marty live in Dallas. They have three daughters — Mardee, Christi and Candy.

Gil Brandt

Vice President-Personnel Development

Gil Brandt is the man responsible for finding the football players who have made the Cowboys a winning team for a remarkable 20 consecutive years.

Brandt has been the Cowboys' chief talent scout since the club's birth in 1960. He had served as a part-time scout for the Los Angeles Rams under General Manager Tex Schramm in the 1950s. When Schramm took command of the newly formed Dallas Cowboys in 1960, one of the first people he hired was Brandt. Schramm, Brandt and Coach Tom Landry form the triumverate which has guided the Cowboys since 1960.

Brandt helped pioneer many of the scouting techniques used by NFL clubs today, such as computer analysis of prospects, converting basketball players and track athletes into football players and finding top free agents from undrafted rookies, such as Drew Pearson, Cliff Harris and Everson Walls.

A native of Milwaukee and a graduate of the University of Wisconsin, Brandt worked as a baby photographer before his flair of discovering football talent led him into the NFL.

Gil and wife Dot live in Dallas with sons Chuck, Todd and Brig.

Don Wilson

Vice President-Treasurer

Don Wilson has overseen the financial management of the Cowboys since joining the club in 1971 as treasurer.

A native of Tulsa, Okla., Wilson received his bachelor of science degree in business administration from the University of Tulsa in 1955.

Wilson began his accounting career with Arthur Andersen & Co. in Oklahoma City as audit manager from 1955-65. In 1965 he moved to Bath, Maine, to become controller of Bath Iron Works Corporation until 1969.

Wilson served as a vice president of Parkwood Laminates, Inc., in Lowell, Mass., from 1969-71 before joining the Cowboys. He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

Don and wife Gloria live in Irving, Texas. Don has two sons, Michael and David.

Joe Bailey

Vice President-Administration

Joe Bailey has served as the Cowboys' vice president in charge of administration since 1977. In 1986 he took on the additional duty of negotiating player contracts. Bailey's career with the Cowboys has included a wide variety of assignments, beginning with his years as a training camp equipment aide in the 1960s.

Bailey joined the Cowboys fulltime in 1970 as a scout after two years with Merrill Lynch in Washington, D.C. Bailey became the Cowboys' business manager in 1971 and handled that post until 1977 when he was elevated to vice president in charge of the club's administrative operation.

The Washington, D.C., native attended the University of North Carolina on a football-baseball scholarship, graduating in 1968 with a degree in political science. He attended the Advanced Management Program of the Harvard University Graduate School of Business in 1985.

Joe serves on the board of directors of NFL Properties, NFL Films and the Plaza National Bank in Dallas. He is a member of the Salesmanship Club of Dallas. Joe and wife Julie live in Dallas with their children — Joe IV, Tara and Tyler.

Bob Ackles

Vice President-Pro Personnel

Bob Ackles joined the Cowboys in July as the club's first director of pro personnel following 11 years as general manager of the Canadian Football League's British Columbia Lions. He was considered one of the CFL's top administrators.

Ackles is responsible for scouting all NFL players and for dealing with other NFL teams on player personnel matters. He also supplies information on opposing players to the Cowboys' coaching staff.

Bob performed virtually every administrative duty during a 32-year career with the B.C. Lions. He had the unique distinction of joining the club in its first year of operation in 1954 as a 16-year-old waterboy.

He worked his way through college as the Lions' equipment manager and became assistant general manager before being elevated to general manager in 1975. Part of Ackles' responsibilities was keeping tabs on NFL players, including annual visits to NFL training camps. He visited the Cowboys' training camp six of the past eight years.

Under Ackles' leadership, the Lions became one of the CFL's winningest teams, moved into a new stadium and built a new training facility. Last year the Lions won the Grey Cup, emblematic of the CFL championship.

Bob and wife Kay have one son, Scott.

COWBOYS CENTER

AT THE VALLEY RANCH

The Dallas Cowboys and Triland International announced plans on March 27, 1984 for the development of Cowboys Center, the most ambitious marketing project ever undertaken by a sports team.

Called "Emerald City for the Cowboys" in a Sept. 2, 1985 story in Newsweek, Cowboys Center when completed will include the club's headquarters and training facility, Cowboys ShowPlace, an ice arena, a hotel-conference center, sports medicine clinic, retail and restaurant pavilion and office park.

Cowboys Center is located on 200 acres in Valley Ranch, a 2,500-acre, master-planned commercial and residential community in northwest Dallas County. Cowboys Center is a joint venture between Triland International of Dallas and the Dallas Cowboys Football Club. Triland Development, an affiliate of Triland International and developer of Valley Ranch, is the managing partner of the venture. Triland Development is responsible for the design, development and marketing of the project.

Here are the components of Cowboys Center:

COWBOYS RANCH:

The Cowboys moved into their state-of-the-art headquarters and training facility in August 1985. The complex includes two grass football fields, locker and training room facilities, meeting rooms, weight training and exercise areas, running trails, racquetball, basketball and tennis courts and a video lab. All coaching, scouting and administrative offices are located in the 80,000-square foot structure of Arizona sandstone, along with a ticket office, souvenir shop, Dallas Cowboys Travel Agency, Cowboys Cheerleaders Dance Academy, offices for the Cowboys Weekly, a press room with a research library, a television studio plus a variety of lounge areas.

COWBOYS SHOWPLACE:

The crown jewel of Cowboys Center, Cowboys ShowPlace will offer an experience of sight, sound and touch celebrating the history of the team. There will be a variety of displays and other innovative gadgetry that will make ShowPlace a must for all football fans.

NORTH TEXAS ICE ARENA:

The only facility in the Dallas area devoted exclusively to ice sports, the North Texas Ice Arena opened in April 1986. The ice arena is home to area hockey leagues, a skating school and figure skating classes.

HOTEL-CONFERENCE CENTER:

A 300-room hotel and executive conference center will provide innovative meeting and conference facilities, complementing the wide range of activities offered by Cowboys Center.

SPORTS MEDICINE CLINIC:

Cowboys Center offers a natural tie-in to the burgeoning sports medicine field. The sports medicine clinic will focus on the prevention, diagnosis, treatment and rehabilitation of athletic injuries.

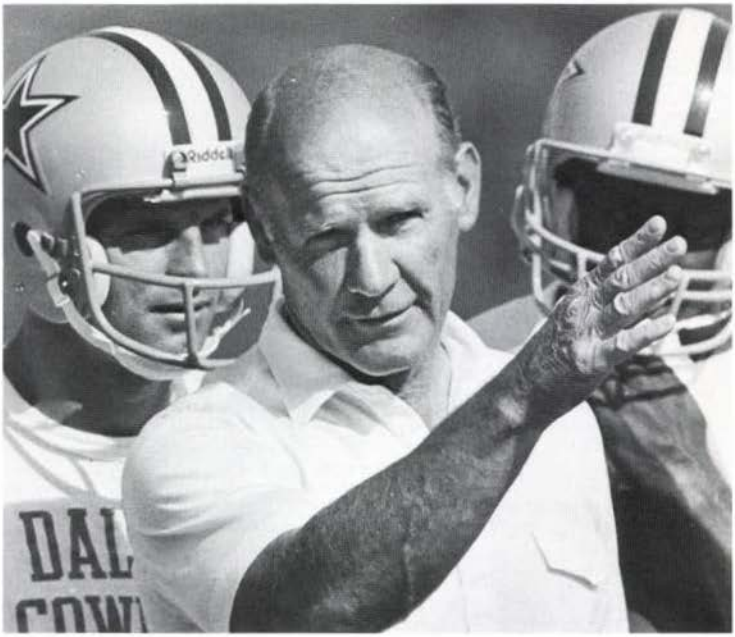
RETAIL-RESTAURANT PAVILION:

Indoor and outdoor dining, specialty shops and a pedestrian bridge connecting this area to Cowboys Ranch will highlight the retail and restaurant area. The dining and shopping opportunities will add to the "city-within-a-city" concept.

OFFICE PARK:

More than 90 acres of prime office sites will have access to the hotel and conference center, sports medicine clinic, ice arena and retail-restaurant pavilion in Cowboys Center. Valley Ranch's residential area will give employers a potential work force of 25,000.

THE COACH



To understand what keeps Tom Landry at the top of his profession in 1986 as he enters his 27th season with the Dallas Cowboys, just ask him about 1985.

"Nobody believed we could win the NFC East last year," he says with a little smile. "And after we won it, they still don't believe it."

The competitive fires still burn brightly in Landry, 62, whose 253 career victories place him behind only George Halas (325) and Don Shula (255) in the history of the NFL.

Under Landry, the Cowboys have enjoyed 20 consecutive winning seasons. It's a record unmatched in NFL history and topped in all of professional sports only by the 1926-64 New York Yankees and the 1952-83 Montreal Canadiens.

The last time the Cowboys lost more games than they won was 1964, when they were 5-8-1. They were 7-7 in '65, and have been above .500 ever since.

Eighteen of those 20 years saw the Cowboys in the playoffs. They've won 12 division championships and five NFC titles for a record five Super Bowl appearances.

Landry's teams won Super Bowl VI over Miami and Super Bowl XII over Denver.

"I coach because I enjoy bringing a team back when it's on a downward slope," Landry told the Dallas Times Herald last spring.

"It was fun coaching the '85 team. It was fun watching them get through the peaks and valleys. It was fun watching players reach a greater height than they expected to reach.

"When players can fight back and bounce back like they did last year, it gets me excited."

And that, in turn keeps the excitement level high, year after year, at Texas Stadium.

Thomas Wade Landry was born in Mission, Texas, on Sept. 11, 1924. He was an All-Regional fullback at Mission High School before enrolling at the University of Texas. Following one semester he joined the Air Corps and flew 30 B-17 missions with the Eighth Air Force in World War II.

In November 1945 he was discharged as a first lieutenant and returned to Texas where he became a star fullback and defensive back, earning All-Southwest Conference honors as a junior and co-captaining the Longhorns as a senior. With Landry's help Texas beat Alabama in the 1948 Sugar Bowl and Georgia in the 1949 Orange Bowl.

Landry played for the New York Yankees of the All-America Conference in 1949 before joining the NFL's New York Giants the next year. He was a mainstay in the Giants' defensive secondary through 1955, the last two years as a player-coach. He earned All-Pro honors in 1954.

Following his retirement as a player in 1955, Tom served as the Giants' defensive coach through 1959. Giants Head Coach Jim Lee Howell called him "the best defensive coach in the business."

Coach Landry and wife Alicia, whom he met at Texas, have three children — Tom Jr., an attorney and oilman, Kitty and Lisa. Kitty and her husband, former Texas quarterback Eddie Phillips, have two children.

Landry is an inspirational leader to many because of his principles and achievements. Tom devotes much of his spare time to the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and serves on the Board of Trustees of the National FCA.

In March, 1984, Mission High School dedicated Tom Landry Stadium in honor of its native son. Tom also was named national chairman of the NFL Alumni Association's 1984 Youth of America Week, and he received the 1984 American Exemplar Medal from the Freedom Foundation.

Coach Landry was a national 1983 Horatio Alger Award winner for his inspirational rise to prominence. In 1981 the NFL Alumni Association presented him with its highest honor, the Order of the Leather Helmet, for distinguished service to football.

In 1980 California Lutheran College, home of the Cowboys' annual training camp, established the Landry Medal, awarded annually to a person who has distinguished himself in his profession and serves as an inspiration to American youth.

Landry earned a degree in business at Texas and one in industrial engineering from the University of Houston. He holds honorary degrees from California Lutheran College (Doctor of Humane Letters), John Brown University (Doctor of Humanities), Southwest Baptist College (Doctor of Laws) and Indiana Central University (Doctor of Laws). In 1978 he was inducted into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame.

THE COACHING STAFF

Jim Myers

Assistant Head Coach • Offensive Line

Jim Myers, the dean of the Cowboys' assistant coaching staff, has fielded quality offensive lines consistently for two decades. Myers has developed All-Pro and Pro Bowl players Ralph Neely, John Niland, Rayfield Wright, Blaine Nye, Herbert Scott and Pat Donovan.

Myers has announced that he will retire from coaching following the 1986 season, his 40th in coaching. "I'd been planning on a total of 40 years in coaching and this is it," Myers said.

In his 25th year with the Cowboys, Myers specializes in converting college defensive linemen into top NFL offensive lineman, including Nye, Donovan, John Fitzgerald, Kurt Petersen and Glen Titensor.

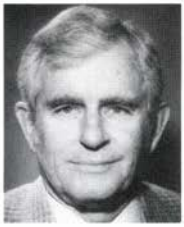
Myers joined the Cowboys in 1962. He was head coach at Iowa State in 1957 and head coach and athletic director at Texas A&M from 1958-61. In 1977 Tom Landry turned over some of his duties to his long-time aide, naming Jim to the newly created post of assistant head coach.

A native of Madison, W. Va. (11/12/21), Myers was an outstanding lineman at the University of Tennessee in 1941-42 and at Duke in the Marine Corps V-12 program in 1943.

Prior to becoming head coach at Iowa State, Myers served as an assistant at Wofford College, Vanderbilt and UCLA. In 1978 he received the Distinguished American Award from the East Tennessee Chapter of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame. In 1985 he was named a Dallas Father of the Year.

Jim serves on the board of directors of the Dallas chapters of the Boys Clubs of America, the Lovers Lane Methodist Church in Dallas and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. He also serves on the Dallas Father of the Year Council.

Jim and wife Carolyn have three daughters — Susan, Kathy and Carol — and eight grandchildren.



Neill Armstrong
Research and Development

Neill Armstrong studies and evaluates all players and teams in the NFL. His reports provide the basis for the formulation of the Cowboys' game plans. Neill joined the Cowboys in 1982. He took over the R&D position from Ermal Allen, who held it for 14 years until his retirement in 1984.

Armstrong compiled a 30-34 record in four seasons (1978-81) as head coach of the Chicago Bears before coming to Dallas. Before joining the Bears he was an assistant coach with the Minnesota Vikings for nine years, seven as defensive coordinator.

Armstrong led Edmonton to the Canadian Football League playoffs three times during a six-year reign as head coach from 1964-69. Neill began his professional coaching career with the Houston Oilers in 1962-63 following seven years (1955-61) as an assistant at his alma mater, Oklahoma State.

A native of Tishomingo, Okla. (3/9/26), Armstrong was an All-America receiver at Oklahoma State (then Oklahoma A&M) from 1943-46. He was the Philadelphia Eagles' No. 1 draft choice in 1947. He played on two NFL championship teams in five seasons (1947-51) with the Eagles. He was a two-time all-star in three years with the CFL's Winnipeg Blue Bombers (1951, '53-54).

Neill and wife Jane have three children — Neill Jr., David and Gail — and five grandchildren.

Paul Hackett
Pass Offense Coordinator • QBs/Receivers

The newest addition to Tom Landry's coaching staff, Paul Hackett joined the Cowboys in February after three years as quarterbacks/receivers coach of the San Francisco 49ers. Under Hackett's guidance, 49ers quarterback Joe Montana was the NFC's highest-rated quarterback and led the NFC in TD passes in both 1984 and '85.

As a senior at UC Davis in 1969 Paul led the Far Western Conference in passing. He began his coaching career the next year at his alma mater before moving on to the University of California in 1972. While at Berkeley Hackett coached All-America Steve Bartkowski, who led the NCAA in passing in 1974, and the late Joe Roth, who led the Pac 8 in passing in 1975.

Following a four-year hitch at Cal, Hackett was named quarterbacks coach at the University of Southern California. With the Trojans he coached Vince Evans and Paul McDonald, who set 17 USC, Pac-10 and NCAA records.

Hackett began his pro coaching career with the Cleveland Browns in 1981. He spent two years as the quarterbacks coach before moving to San Francisco in 1983.

A native of Burlington, Vt. (7/5/47), Paul and wife Elizabeth have two sons — David and Nathaniel.

Al Lavan
Running Backs

Following eight years of coaching in college and the pros, Al Lavan became the Cowboys' running backs coach in 1980. Under Lavan the Cowboys' running game has remained one of the most feared in the NFL. Tony Dorsett, Timmy Newsome and James Jones all matured under Lavan's tutelage.

Lavan coached running backs at Stanford in 1979 after two years at Georgia Tech handling receivers and running backs. He directed defensive backs and special teams for the Falcons in 1975 and '76.

Lavan began his coaching career in 1972 as receivers coach at his alma mater, Colorado State. He moved to Louisville to coach defensive backs in 1973 before being named receivers coach at Iowa State in 1974. The next season he returned to the Falcons as a coach.

A native of Pierce, Fla. (9/13/46), Lavan was a defensive back and place kicker at Colorado State and was drafted in the eighth round by Philadelphia in 1968. He played defensive back for the Eagles in 1968, then for Atlanta in 1969 and '70.

Al and wife Bessie have three children — Travis, Douglas and Maeleeke.

Alan Lowry
Special Teams

Alan Lowry was named Cowboys special teams coach in 1982 after five seasons as defensive backfield coach of his alma mater, the University of Texas. He also works with Cowboys tight ends.

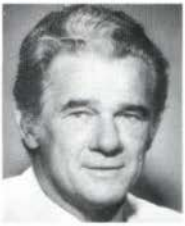
Lowry is one of the few football players in Southwest Conference history to earn All-Conference honors both as an offensive and defensive star. He was a defensive back at Texas in 1970 and '71 when the Longhorns won a national and two conference championships. Lowry was All-SWC in 1971.

In 1972 Lowry was switched to quarterback and earned conference honors again in leading Texas to a 10-1 season, including a come-from-behind victory over Alabama in the Cotton Bowl.

After receiving his degree in physical education, Lowry served as an assistant coach at Virginia Tech in 1974. He joined the Wyoming staff under Fred Akers in 1975, but resigned that post in the summer of 1976.

Lowry worked for the Cowboys' scouting department in the fall of 1976 before joining Akers' staff at Texas in December 1976.

Lowry is a native of Irving, Texas (11/21/50), home of Texas Stadium. Alan and wife Donna live in Dallas with daughter Marta Jean.



Dick Nolan

Defensive Backs

After four years as receivers coach with the Cowboys, Dick Nolan returned to a familiar role as the Cowboys defensive backs coach in 1986, reuniting the original "Doomsday Defense" coaching staff of Nolan and Ernie Stautner. After a year as a player-coach in 1962, Dick oversaw the Cowboys defensive backs from 1963-67, developing All-Pros Mel Renfro and Cornell Green.

Nolan left the Cowboys to become head coach of the San Francisco 49ers from 1968-75. His teams won the NFC West championship in 1970, '71 and '72. He was NFC coach of the year in 1970.

Nolan joined New Orleans as linebackers coach in 1977 and was head coach of the Saints from 1978-80. Dick was the defensive coordinator of the Oilers in 1981 before returning to Dallas in 1982.

Nolan and Tom Landry were defensive back teammates with the New York Giants in 1954 and '55 when Tom was a player-coach. Nolan also played under Landry in 1956, '57 and '59 when Tom was New York's defensive coach. Nolan played for the Chicago Cardinals in 1958 before returning to the Giants for the next three seasons.

Born in Pittsburgh, Pa. (3/26/32), and raised in White Plains, N.Y., Nolan was a two-way star football player at the University of Maryland from 1951-53. He played offensive and defensive halfback on Maryland's 1953 national championship team.

Dick and wife Ann have six children — Richard Jr., Nancy, Michael, Kelly, Lisa and Jimmy — and three grandchildren.

Ernie Stautner

Defensive Coordinator • Defensive Line

Under the direction of Pro Football Hall of Famer Ernie Stautner, the Cowboys consistently field excellent defenses and All-Pro defensive linemen like Bob Lilly, George Andrie, Harvey Martin, Randy White, Ed Jones and John Dutton.

The Cowboys' famed "Doomsday Defense" began to emerge shortly after Stautner's arrival as defensive line coach in 1966. Ernie also helped fashion "Doomsday II," which carried Dallas to its second Super Bowl title in 1977.

Stautner was an All-Pro defensive end and tackle with the Pittsburgh Steelers where he played for 15 years (1950-64) despite being relatively small at 6-0, 230 pounds. A veteran of nine Pro Bowls, he was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1969, his first year of eligibility. In 1982 he was voted to the Steelers' 50th anniversary team.

Ernie was born in Cham, Bavaria (4/20/27), but grew up in Albany, N.Y. Following a World War II Marine Corps hitch (1943-46), he enrolled at Boston College and developed into a two-way star lineman.

Ernie directs the annual Ernie Stautner Football Camp for Boys every June at Texas Stadium.

Ernie has three children — Joe, Terri and Carol.

Jerry Tubbs
Linebackers

The only original Cowboys player still with the club is Jerry Tubbs, who came to Dallas in the 1960 expansion draft from the San Francisco 49ers.

Jerry was the Cowboys' first starting middle linebacker and one of four in club history. As a coach he developed his successors at the critical middle spot, Lee Roy Jordan, Bob Breunig and Eugene Lockhart. Tubbs, Jordan and Breunig all played in the Pro Bowl.

Tubbs played for the Cowboys for eight seasons (1961-67), serving as player-coach the last two. He was the Cowboys' first All-Pro and Pro Bowl linebacker (1962) and was known as one of the most aggressive players in the game.

Jerry has coached four Pro Bowl linebackers in Dallas — Jordan, Breunig, Chuck Howley and Thomas Henderson.

Born in Breckenridge, Texas (1/23/35), Jerry was inducted into the Texas High School Football Hall of Fame in 1971. He was an All-America center-linebacker for Bud Wilkinson's unbeaten Oklahoma teams from 1954-56. Tubbs was the Walter Camp Award winner in 1956 as the nation's outstanding player.

In '85 Sooners Illustrated magazine ranked Tubbs No. 4 on the list of the 10 all-time greatest Oklahoma football players.

Tubbs was drafted in the first round by the Chicago Cardinals in 1957 and also played for the 49ers before coming to Dallas.

Jerry and wife Marlene have two children — Alan and Kayla.

Bob Ward
Conditioning

Dr. Bob Ward has Cowboys players enthusiastically participating in his innovative conditioning programs, which include weightlifting, aerobic conditioning, martial arts, flexibility training and nutrition.

Working with computers and emphasizing futuristic concepts, Ward directs the Cowboys' voluntary offseason conditioning program, using biomechanics to devise individual programs for each player. He also supplies each player with a training program during the season.

Ward was track coach for 11 years at Fullerton College in California before joining the Cowboys in 1975.

A graduate of Whitworth College in Spokane, Wash., Ward was an NAIA Little All-America in football and competed at the National NAIA track meet in the shot put and discus. He received his master's degree in physical education from the University of Washington and his doctorate from Indiana University.

Bob has trained extensively in the martial arts and taught Cowboys players various martial arts techniques that can be used in football. A member of Delta Force, a U.S. Army think-tank, he founded the National Association of Speed and Explosion with George Dintiman.

A native of Huntington Park, Calif. (7/4/33), Bob and wife Joyce have two children — Shannon and Erin.

DON COCHREN

KEN LOCKER

BUCK BUCHANAN

DON COCHREN, Trainer

Don Cochren joined the Cowboys in 1965 after experience in college, military and Canadian Football League training.

A graduate of Purdue, Cochren earned his physical therapy certificate at Pennsylvania. He was trainer at Case Institute (now Case-Western Reserve) in Cleveland for two years, with the Toronto Argonauts of the CFL for four years and at the University of New Hampshire for one year before coming to Dallas. He also served as a physical therapy officer in the Air Force for two years.

Don was one of 28 trainers selected from colleges and professional sports teams to serve the United States team at the 1980 Winter Olympics in Lake Placid, N.Y. In 1984 Don received the 25-year honor award from the National Athletic Trainers Association.

A native of Princeton, Ind. (2/6/32), Don and wife Jan have four children — Jan, Scott, Wendy and Chris.

KEN LOCKER, Assistant Trainer

Ken Locker works with Don Cochren and supervises the Cowboys' medical rehabilitation program. Locker came to the Cowboys in 1973 after four years as assistant trainer and interim head trainer at North Texas State University.

Locker received his master's degree in physical education from Texas Woman's University. He served two years as trainer of World Championship Tennis, traveling with the men's tour in 1975 and '76.

In 1982 Ken was trainer for NBC's "Survival of the Fittest" competition in New Zealand. He serves as group coordinator of the Dallas Blood Center and on the executive board of the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society.

Ken is a native of Seminole, Texas (7/23/51). He and wife Pam live in Roanoke, Texas, with daughters Baylee Arrena and Berkley Anne.

BUCK BUCHANAN, Equipment Manager

William T. "Buck" Buchanan joined the Cowboys in 1973 after supervising athletic programs in the Air Force for 20 years.

SMSgt. Buchanan was a non-commissioned officer in charge of athletics and programs at the U.S. Air Force Academy Prep School in Colorado Springs for four years. He was awarded the Bronze Star for his performance during a 1968-69 tour of duty in Thailand.

Buck was born in Ballinger, Texas (5/24/33). He and wife Geraldine have two children — Bucky and Julie.

Vince Albritton ★ 36

SAFETY • WASHINGTON • 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 213 • BORN: 7/23/62 • FA FOR '84

PRO: Vince Albritton fits in perfectly in the Cowboys' 4-0 defense. After earning a spot on the roster as a free agent defensive back in 1984, Albritton was moved to linebacker in 1985 and back to safety in '86. He possesses the size and strength to handle the run and the speed to cover the receivers. "He's kind of a swing man between safety and linebacker," says Tom Landry. "He's big and strong and has experience at linebacker in our 4-0 defense." Vince pulled a hamstring in training camp last year and was placed on injured reserve after the San Diego preseason game. He was re-activated with seven games remaining and played well on special teams and as a linebacker in the 4-0 defense. Against Philadelphia (11/24) he had three tackles and two passes defensed. Vince received his first pro start against San Francisco (12/22) when the Cowboys began the game in the 4-0 pass defense. As a rookie Albritton appeared in all 16 games on special teams and in the 4-0 defense. GAMES/STARTS: 1984 (16/0), 1985 (7/1). Total — 23/1.

COLLEGE: Vince played safety, linebacker and cornerback at Washington. Playing strong safety his senior year, he led the Husky secondary in tackles, and played in the Japan Bowl. An honorable mention All-West Coast and second team All-Pac 10 pick in 1983, Albritton was a teammate of Steve Pelluer at Washington.

PERSONAL: Vince Denader Albritton attended McClymonds High School in Oakland, Calif., where he concentrated mostly on baseball. He led the football team to the Oakland Athletic League title in his senior year when he intercepted a league-leading and school-record eight passes, earning him All-OAL honors. He is working towards his degree in speech communications at Washington.

Dowe Aughtman ★ 76

GUARD • AUBURN • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 259 • BORN: 1/28/61 • D-11 FOR '84

PRO: When Dowe Aughtman injured his shoulder in training camp and subsequently was placed on injured reserve for the year, one of the most interesting stories of 1985 was put on hold until this season. Aughtman joined the Cowboys as a longshot defensive tackle candidate after being drafted in the 11th round in 1984. The fact that he ended up making the team, then finished the season as a bright, young offensive guard prospect is a testament to Aughtman's greatest quality — his competitive nature. The Cowboys switched Aughtman to offense in September of his rookie year after injuries decimated the offensive line. "He had never played guard and he looked it in the beginning," Tom Landry said. "But the kid is a great competitor. He's very compact. He's a tough, hard-nosed guy. Usually that kind of personality is playing defense. Aughtman may develop and surprise us this summer." Dowe saw no game action at guard in 1984, but did play on special teams in seven games. "The thing that impressed me was his aggressiveness and desire," offensive line coach Jim Myers said. "He was running over people and knocking them down in practice. Guys started looking for him so they could get out of the way. He's the kind of player who will excel." GAMES/STARTS: 1984 (7/0), 1985 (IR). Total — 7/0.

COLLEGE: Aughtman was a two-time All-Southeastern Conference nose tackle at Auburn. A senior co-captain, he was described in the Auburn football guide as "a good ole country boy who likes to play football, ride around in a truck and chew tobacco."

PERSONAL: Lorenzo Dowe Aughtman and wife Brenda live in Coppell, Texas, a Dallas suburb. Dowe attended T.R. Miller High School in his native Brewton, Ala., and is pursuing a degree in education from Auburn. His hobbies are hunting deer and turkey. In college he listed his favorite NFL player as Randy White.

Brian Baldinger ★ 62

GUARD • DUKE • 4th YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 261 • BORN: 1/7/59 • FA FOR '82

PRO: Baldinger missed the entire 1985 season recovering from knee surgery, but entered '86 training camp at full speed thanks to his untiring efforts in the rehabilitation program. When he was hurt in the pre-season, Brian was in the thick of the battle for a starting slot in the offensive line. When regulars were injured in 1984, Baldinger started two games at guard and two at tackle, acquitting himself well and catching the coaches' attention. "Brian Baldinger is a great competitor," says Tom Landry. "He'll fight you all the way. Anybody who beats him out will have to compete very hard." GAMES/STARTS: 1982 (4/0), 1983 (16/0), 1984 (16/4), 1985 (IR). Total — 36/4.

COLLEGE: Baldinger was an All-Coastal Conference tight end at Nassau Community College on Long Island before transferring to Duke, where he switched to guard. Brian started 11 games his senior year and was considered the most improved player on the squad.

PERSONAL: Brian David Baldinger (BALL-ding-er) of Massapequa Park, N.Y., comes from an athletic family. His father Jim played at Navy, his brother Rich, who played at Wake Forest, was a 1982 New York Giants draft choice who later played with the Kansas City Chiefs and his brother Gary, who also played at Wake Forest, was drafted this year by Kansas City. Brian participated in football, basketball and track at Massapequa High School and is one of the stars of the Cowboys' off-season basketball team. He received his Duke degree in psychology. Baldinger has his residential real estate license and is involved in owning thoroughbred horses. Brian donates his time to the Lewisville YMCA, Special Olympics in Bonham and Dallas and the Dallas March of Dimes.

Gordon Banks ★ 87

WIDE RECEIVER • STANFORD • 4th YEAR
HT: 5-10 • WT: 173 • BORN: 3/12/58 • FA FOR '85

PRO: In the last few games and the playoffs last year Gordon Banks showed that he could possibly be a top punt returner in the NFL. Signed on 12/5 to provide depth as both a wide receiver and punt returner, Banks began returning punts against the Giants (12/15). He returned his first punt with Dallas 28 yards, the longest punt return by a Cowboys player since Gary Allen's 68-yard TD return in 1983. Banks also had a 23-yard return in the playoff game against the Rams (1/4) and saw some playing time at wide receiver in '85. "We didn't have Gordon Banks long enough to really tell where he fits in," said coach Tom Landry. "For a little man, he's got a lot of potential. He has that background in the USFL where he caught a lot of passes." The only player to catch a pass in all 54 USFL games, Banks finished his career as the Oakland Invaders' all-time leading receiver with 187 catches for 2,907 yards in three years. With a career-high 64 catches in 1984, Banks caught over 60 passes in each of his three USFL seasons. He had a career-high 1,115 yards receiving in 1985. Banks was signed as a free agent out of college by the New Orleans Saints, where the head coach his rookie year was current Cowboys defensive backs coach Dick Nolan. He played two years with the Saints before he was released during training camp in 1982. GAMES/STARTS: 1980 (7/0-N.O.), 1981 (6/1-N.O.), 1985 (2/0). Total — 15/1 (2/0-Dallas).

COLLEGE: Banks was a four-year letterman in both track and football at Stanford where he recorded a 10.33 100-meter dash. He started opposite All-America Ken Margerum at wide receiver for the Cardinal.

PERSONAL: A native of Los Angeles, Calif., Gordon Gerard Banks attended Loyola High School. He is president of GBI Enterprises, a company dealing in gold and silver commodities. Banks, who received his degree in political science from Stanford, lives in Los Angeles.

Bill Bates ★ 40

SAFETY • TENNESSEE • 4th YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 199 • BORN: 6/6/61 • FA FOR '83

PRO: The easiest way to find Bill Bates on a crowded training camp practice field is to use your ears. Simply listen for the sound of the loudest collisions, head in that direction, and more often than not you'll find Bates involved. Tom Landry has an interesting way of describing the Cowboys' special teams captain: "Bill Bates is still Bill Bates. He'll hit anybody. You always say he is potentially a starting strong safety. It's just a matter of him controlling his impulses enough to keep everything under control in order for him to be a real solid player. But, boy, he is a competitor. He's the type of player you need on the field." When Dallas needed a punt returner midway in the '86 season, Landry turned to Bates. "He can catch the ball," reasoned the coach, "and we know he'll go north-south." Bates intercepted four passes in 1985, doubling the total of his first two seasons, and again was the leading tackler among non-starters. But, with the Cowboys using as many as seven defensive backs at any one time, Bill saw a great deal of action on defense in addition to his varied special teams duties. Former Cowboys assistant Gene Stallings, now head coach at St. Louis, summed up Bates' contributions thusly: "You can go to a game, not know anything about football, and still see Bill Bates. He'll trap somebody, make a tackle on a kickoff, knock somebody down. It's my contention that you don't have to look for good football players. They stick out." GAMES/STARTS: 1983 (16/1), 1984 (12/2), 1985 (16/0). TOTAL: (44/3).

COLLEGE: Bates played both safety positions in four years as a starter at Tennessee. He was named second-team All-Southeastern Conference his junior and senior years. Bates was known as the Vols' hardest hitter, surest tackler and as a team leader. He intercepted nine passes and recovered six fumbles in his career.

PERSONAL: William Frederick Bates was born and raised in Knoxville, Tenn., where he excelled in football, basketball and as a sprinter on the track team at Farragut High School. He was all-state in football and basketball. A 1985 NFL Man of the Year finalist, Bill supports the United Way, the Dallas-area Boys Clubs, the Special Olympics in Tennessee, the United Children's Fund of Dallas and the Dallas Wednesday's Child Program benefitting orphans. He also serves as a spokesman for the Dallas-Fort Worth Ronald McDonald Houses. Bill and wife Denise, a fashion model, live in North Dallas.

Kevin Brooks ★ 99

DEFENSIVE TACKLE • MICHIGAN • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-6 • WT: 270 • BORN: 2/9/63 • D-1 FOR '85

PRO: Kevin Brooks figured prominently in Tom Landry's plans for the 1986 season. "We've got to have some new people come forward this year," Landry said, "someone like a Kevin Brooks who moves in and plays extremely well. If Kevin Brocks is a football player, he's got to move into the starting lineup this year. If he does, we'll be better." There's no doubt the Cowboys' 1985 first-round draft choice has the physical tools to be a top player. Brocks is, simply, a magnificent physical specimen. "He's a big, tall, strong guy who's an excellent athlete," Landry says. "He has good speed and he's very active. With those qualities, he's got great possibilities. He's extremely important to the future of the Cowboys." In his rookie season Brooks worked at all four defensive line positions. He saw limited game action, getting spot duty when minor injuries sidelined Ed Jones, Jim Jeffcoat and Don Smerek. His best game was at Houston (9/29) when he had four tackles and a sack playing most of the second half for Jeffcoat. Brooks was the fourth defensive lineman taken in the 1985 draft after Bruce Smith (Buffalo), Ray Childress (Houston) and Ron Holmes (Tampa Bay). GAMES/STARTS: 1985 (11/0).

COLLEGE: After spending his freshman year as a 6-4, 215-pound outside linebacker, Brooks matured physically and was switched to defensive tackle. He was a three-year starter, leading the Wolverines his senior year in tackles for losses (13) and sacks (6).

PERSONAL: Born and raised in Detroit, Kevin Craig Brooks was an All-America, All-State and team MVP his senior year at MacKenzie High School. He was a member of the National Honor Society and received his school's scholar-athlete award. He earned his degree from Michigan in pre-law. Kevin actively supports the Big Brothers program in Dallas. Last May 24 he married the former Sonja Samuel of Dallas.

HT: 5-11 • WT: 195 • BORN: 4/13/58 • FA FOR '80

PRO: One of the Cowboys' most astute players is Dextor Clinkscale, the starting strong safety the past three years. Seldom caught out of position, Clinkscale "is a solid player," says Tom Landry. "He is smart and always knows what's going on." In 1985 Dextor was in on a career-high 100 tackles, third most on the team, and tied his career highs of three interceptions and two sacks. He earned a coaches' game ball in a victory over Atlanta (10/27) with two interceptions and a team-leading 13 tackles. In '84 Clinkscale finished third on the team in tackles and interceptions and tied for the club lead in fumbles recovered. He had an outstanding game in a victory over Chicago (9/30) with a QB trap, an interception and eight tackles. In '83 Dextor led the team in fumbles recovered, finished fifth in tackles and scored a key touchdown in a win over the Giants (9/18). With the Cowboys clinging to a 14-13 fourth-quarter lead, Clinkscale picked off a Scott Brunner

His three brothers also attended college on football scholarships and earned their degrees. Dextor gives his time in support of Children's Medical Center in Dallas.

Reggie Collier ★ 10

QUARTERBACK • SOUTHERN MISSISSIPPI • 1st YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 207 • BORN 5/14/61 • D-6 FOR '83

PRO: Reggie Collier has the potential to become one of the most versatile quarterbacks in the NFL. An outstanding athlete, Collier possesses great speed to go along with a strong passing arm. He signed with Dallas (5/23/86) after three seasons in the USFL. Slowed by a finger injury early in the season Collier became the starter for the Orlando Renegades in the fifth game of the '85 season. He was 229 of 427 for 2,578 yards, 13 touchdowns and 16 interceptions. Over his last six games Collier threw for eight TDs and only four interceptions, including his most productive passing day as a pro against Tampa Bay when he was 17 of 30 for 214 yards, three touchdowns and one interception. The Renegades MVP last year, Reggie also rushed for 606 yards, including touchdown runs of 63 and 71 yards, and 12 TDs on 92 carries. Against Jacksonville, Collier ran for 171 yards and four touchdowns, setting pro single-game rushing records for a QB. In three USFL seasons Reggie averaged 6.7 yards per carry (155-1,033, 17 TDs). His career passing totals are 358 of 695 attempts for 4,151 yards, 20 TDs and 35 interceptions. Collier originally signed with the Birmingham Stallions in 1983. He started five games before a knee injury forced him to miss the rest of the year. After being traded to Washington in '84, Collier spent the season backing up Mike Hohensee. He went to the Renegades in '85 when Washington merged with Orlando.

COLLEGE: As a junior at Southern Mississippi in 1981, Collier became the first QB in NCAA Division I history to go over 1,000 yards passing and rushing in the same season. He was 81 of 139 for 1,004 yards passing and rushed for 1,005 yards on 153 carries. In four years with the Golden Eagles Collier set a school career record for total offense with 5,964 yards, completing 288 of 574 passes for 3,662 yards and running for 2,302 yards on 446 attempts. In his last two years he rushed for 24 touchdowns. With a career-high 186-yard rushing performance against UT Arlington in '81, Collier had three games with more than 150 rushing yards.

PERSONAL: A native of Biloxi, MS, Reggie Collier attended K'Iberville High School where he starred in basketball and in football as a safety and quarterback. He earned MVP honors in the state high school all-star game following his senior year. A TV/Radio communications major at Southern Mississippi, Reggie and wife Cynthia live in Biloxi, MS.

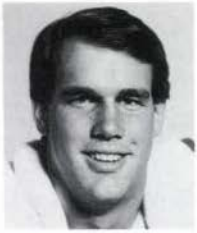
Jim Cooper ★ 61

TACKLE • TEMPLE • 10th YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 274 • BORN: 9/28/55 • D-6 FOR '77

PRO: Jim Cooper showed again in 1985 why the most often used word to describe him is dependable. After suffering a freak injury that sidelined him for the last nine games of 1984, Cooper rebounded to have another solid season at right tackle, where he has been the starter since 1980. Cooper's season-ending injury in October of 1984 did not occur on a football field. It happened in a Dallas restaurant when he slipped on the floor and dislocated his ankle. "I've played football all my life and I've never had an injury as serious as that one," Cooper said. Cooper started 15 games last year, missing only the season finale at San Francisco with a jammed neck. "You can count on Jim every game and know he'll perform very well for you," Tom Landry says. Cooper, who has also played guard and center for the Cowboys, nearly didn't make the team as a rookie in 1977. He was released in training camp that year but was re-signed just before the opener and went on to play in every game to nail down his spot on the squad. He started the first 11 games of 1979 while Rayfield Wright was recovering from a knee iniury. GAMES/STARTS: 1977 (14/0), 1978 (14/2), 1979 (15/11), 1980 (15/15), 1981 (16/16), 1982 (9/9), 1983 (16/15), 1984 (7/7), 1985 (15/15). Total — 121/90.

COLLEGE: Cooper started for three years at Temple under Wayne Hardin, Roger Staubach's coach at Navy. Jim played in the offensive and defensive lines before settling at offensive tackle.

PERSONAL: Philadelphia native James Albert Cooper and his wife Mary, a nurse, live in Richardson, Texas. They have two sons, James Ryan (6/6/79) and Sean Francis (6/8/84). In the offseason, Jim works for Grunnah and Swanson, a Dallas commercial real estate firm. Jim was voted the fans' Favorite Cowboy in 1983, an honor that traditionally goes to a player at one of the more visible positions.



Fred Cornwell ★ 85

TIGHT END • SOUTHERN CAL • 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-6 • WT: 233 • BORN: 8/7/61 • D-3 FOR '84

PRO: Fred Cornwell is a step away from becoming the dependable tight end the Cowboys need behind Doug Cosbie. "Fred Cornwell has the size you like in a tight end," said coach Tom Landry. "He needs to show up strong this summer if we're going to have the depth we need at tight end." Cornwell made the biggest catch of his pro career last year against Houston (9/29). With 1:51 remaining and the score tied at 10, Fred caught a one-yard toss from Danny White for the winning score. An outstanding blocker, Fred was used mainly as the second tight end in short yardage situations his first two seasons. Against Chicago (11/17) last year Cornwell caught his longest pro pass, a 32-yarder. In 1984 Fred caught his first NFL pass and his first NFL touchdown pass against St. Louis (10/7) while playing for an injured Cosbie. Cornwell, who received his first professional start against Green Bay (9/23) in '84 as the second tight end, missed two games his rookie season due to a back injury. GAMES/STARTS: 1984 (14/1), 1985 (16/1). Total— 30/2.

COLLEGE: Cornwell was an outstanding blocker and clutch pass receiver in three years as Southern Cal's starting tight end. He had his most productive year in 1983 with 22 catches for 236 yards and a touchdown. A senior co-captain in 1983, Cornwell earned second-team All-Pac 10 honors. In his career he caught 34 passes for 343 yards and two touchdowns. Cornwell's biggest moment came in 1981 when he caught a seven-yard touchdown pass from John Mazur with two seconds left to give the No. 1-ranked Trojans a 24-21 victory over Oklahoma at the L.A. Coliseum.

PERSONAL: Born in Osborne, Kan., and raised in Saugus, Calif., Fred Keith Cornwell starred in football, basketball and track (shot put) at Canyon High School. In the offseason Fred works with the Special Olympics of Texas. He earned his degree in civil engineering at USC.

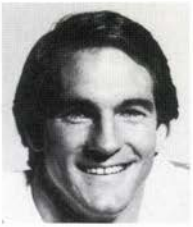
Doug Cosbie ★ 84



TIGHT END • SANTA CLARA • 8th YEAR
HT: 6-6 • WT: 245 • BORN: 3/27/56 • D-3 FOR '79

PRO: The Cowboys have their own version of The Cosbie Show, and it too makes for spectacular entertainment. Since becoming the Cowboys' starting tight end in 1982, Doug Cosbie has steadily ascended toward stardom. He has increased his production each season and has been voted to three straight Pro Bowls. "We have one of the best tight ends in football in Doug Cosbie," says Tom Landry. "He had a great year in '85. He's just an excellent football player, the type we need to build a championship team. Hopefully, we'll use him even more this year." Last year Cosbie set a team record for receptions by a tight end for the third year in a row. His 64 catches ranked fourth in the NFL among tight ends. He also established a career high and club record for receiving yards in a season by a tight end, and he tied his career season high of six touchdowns. Doug is the Cowboys' seventh all-time leading receiver and is fast closing on the No. 6 spot held by the man he succeeded, Billy Joe DuPree (267-3,565). In 1984 Cosbie led the team with 60 receptions. In '83 he broke by four DuPree's 1976 team record for catches by a tight end of 42. In '82, when Cosbie took over the starting job, he led NFC tight ends with 30 catches. Doug shared the position with DuPree as a play messenger in 1981. In the NFC Championship Game that season he caught a 21-yard TD pass to send the Cowboys ahead of San Francisco 27-21 in the fourth quarter. A Dallas newspaper once described Cosbie as "the consummate Cowboy — the diplomat, the hard worker, the willing learner, the unknown collegiate with the unlimited talent, the draft find." Doug was the fourth tight end selected in the 1979 draft after Kellen Winslow (San Diego), Dan Ross (Cincinnati) and Ronnie Lee (Miami). He was selected with a choice obtained in a trade with Seattle for Bill Gregory. Doug has not missed a game in his career. GAMES/STARTS: 1979 (16/1), 1980

COLLEGE: Cosbie caught 120 passes for 1,721 yards and 10 touchdowns in four years at Santa Clara, three as a starter. In his senior year he served as team captain and was voted the club's offensive MVP and honorable mention All-Pacific Coast. He also attended Holy Cross College in Worcester, Mass., and DeAnza Junior College in Cupertino, Calif.

PERSONAL: Douglas Durant Cosbie is a native of Mt. View, Calif., where he attended St. Francis High and played football, basketball and track. Doug was the 1984 Cowboys winner of the NFL Man of the Year contest, which recognizes the NFL's top citizen-athletes. Doug gives his time to a variety of civic causes, including the Youth for Tomorrow Home in Roanoke, Texas, and the John Weber Ministries of Dallas, the Special Olympics for the Handicapped, Multiple Sclerosis, the American Heart Association and Cystic Fibrosis. Last year Doug began plans for the Doug Cosbie Youth Home for troubled adolescents and their families in the Dallas area. Doug has a degree in marketing. He and wife Sherry live in McKinney, Texas, with son Matthew Douglas (8/19/80) and daughter Kari Kirrene (7/2/83).

Steve DeOssie ★ 55

LINEBACKER • BOSTON COLLEGE • 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 245 • BORN: 11/22/62 • D-4 FOR '84

PRO: The Cowboys believe the versatile DeOssie — their biggest linebacker — is in position to play a key role for the club. DeOssie backs up Eugene Lockhart at middle linebacker, plays on special teams and in short yardage and goal-line defenses, and snaps the ball on punts. "He's smart and he's a contributor," says Tom Landry. "He might become a real asset on defense because of his intelligence, his know-how in running the defense. He's already an asset to the team because of his special teams work." GAMES/STARTS: 1984 (16/0), 1985 (16/0). Totals — 32/0.

COLLEGE: DeOssie was a four-year starter at middle linebacker for Boston College, earning All-East honors twice and being named second team AP All-America in 1983. A captain his senior year, Steve was the Eagles' leading tackler from 1981 through '83.

PERSONAL: Steven Leonard DeOssie and his wife Diana have three children — Nichole (5/24/83), and twins Zak and Christina (5/25/84). Steve was an All-State football, basketball and baseball player at Don Bosco High School in Roslindale, Mass. Steve works with the Winter Special Olympics in New Mexico and the Big Brothers program in the Dallas area. He and his wife also contribute their tiime to the American Red Cross in Dallas. DeOssie also enjoys motorized hang gliding.

Tony Dorsett ★ 33

RUNNING BACK • PITTSBURGH • 10th YEAR
HT: 5-11 • WT: 185 • BORN: 4/7/54 • D-1 FOR '77

PRO: They will have to keep his place warm in the Pro Football Hall of Fame a while longer yet. The Tony Dorsett Show is still speeding along with no hint of a closing in sight. "Our offense still revolves around Dorsett," Tom Landry says. "He's had a remarkable career. He's the best running back for his size I've ever seen." In 1985 Dorsett became only the sixth player in NFL history to rush for 10,000 career yards. He rushed for more than 1,000 yards for the eighth time in nine NFL seasons and 14th time in the 15 years he has been a running back, dating to his junior year of high school. Tony is the only NFL runner to gain 1,000 yards in each of his first five seasons. That streak was broken in 1982 by the players' strike, although counting his 266 playoff yards Dorsett's season total was 1,011. Tony also became more involved as a big-play weapon in the passing attack last year. "If he continues to move in that direction, he'll continue to be a very, very productive back for several more years," Landry says. Amazingly durable, Dorsett has missed only three games in his career and has started 91 consecutive games (including playoffs) since last missing one in mid-1980. He began his 10th season needing 1,481 yards to pass Jim Brown and become the NFL's second all-time leading rusher to Walter Payton. He is fourth on the NFL's all-time rushing-receiving list with 13,820 yards and sixth on the all-time combined yardage list 13,832 yards. He needs 992 yards in '86 to pass Jim Brown into second place behind Payton on the combined yardage list. In 1982 Dorsett captured his only NFC rushing title and established an unbreakable NFL record by racing 99 yards from scrimmage for a touchdown at Minnesota (1/3/83). He has led the Cowboys in rushing every year he's been with the team, nine in a row. He owns the Cowboys' top six season rushing performances, top nine single-game rushing efforts and the five longest runs from scrimmage, all 75 yards or longer. He's the NFL's second all-time leading playoff rusher with 1,383 yards in 17 games, trailing only Franco Harris' 1,556 in 19 games. He also owns team records for most career 100-yard games (44, Cowboys are 41-3 in these, 27-0 in Texas Stadium), most career touchdowns (79), most 100-yard games in a season (9), most consecutive 100-yard games (4) and most yards gained in a playoff game (160 vs. Rams in 1980). A team captain in 1978, '81, '82 and '84, Dorsett was voted to the Pro Bowl in 1978, '81, '82 and '83. He earned consensus All-Pro honors in 1981 and was named NFC player of the year by UPI, the Washington Touchdown Club and the Kansas City Committee of 101. The second player selected in the 1977 draft following a trade with Seattle, Dorsett won consensus rookie of the year honors and helped the Cowboys win Super Bowl XII. GAMES/ STARTS: 1977 (14/4), 1978 (16/15), 1979 (14/14), 1980 (15/15), 1981 (16/16), 1982 (9/9), 1983 (16/16), 1984 (16/16), 1985 (16/16). Total — 132/121.

COLLEGE: Dorsett crowned a brilliant collegiate career by winning the 1976 Heisman Trophy as the nation's outstanding player. Dorsett rushed for an NCAA career-record 6,082 yards and 58 TDs and led Pitt to the 1976 national championship with a 12-0 record. He broke or tied 14 NCAA records, was a four-time All-America and the first player in NCAA history with four 1,000-yard seasons and three 1,500-yard seasons.

PERSONAL: Off the field Aliquippa, Pa., native (Hopewell High) Anthony Drew Dorsett enjoys a variety of civic and business interests. He has given his time to Easter Seals, the American Heart Association, the United Way, United Negro College Fund, the Make-a-Wish Foundation, Hands Across America, the Dallas Civic Opera and the Texas Department of Highways and Public Transportation. His business interests include Southwestern Drilling Mud Company, United Sciences of America (a nutritional program) and U.S.A. Wet (a sports drink). Tony has a son, Anthony Drew Dorsett, Jr. (9/14/73), a budding football star in Atlanta, Ga.

Michael Downs ★ 26

SAFETY • RICE • 6th YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 204 • BORN: 6/9/59 • FA FOR '81

PRO: Michael Downs emerged as one of the NFL's best safeties in 1984 and continued that level of excellence in 1985. Named a defensive co-captain by his teammates for '85, Downs was named All-NFC by UPI for the second straight year after leading the secondary in tackles for the fifth consecutive year and co-leading the team in solo tackles with 69 and forced fumbles with two. He finished the season tied for ninth on the club's career interception list with 22. The unheralded free agent from Rice has been a starter since the first game of his rookie year and, despite his slender frame, has missed only one game, the second of his rookie year when he was sidelined by a pulled hamstring. Downs has started 78 consecutive games (including playoffs) at free safety. In his breakthrough year of 1984 Michael led the entire team in tackles for the second time and also was the Cowboys' top pass interceptor with seven. He was named All-Pro by the Pro Football Writers Association and Sports Illustrated. Downs possesses excellent range defending the pass and also is a feared blitzer up the middle. He ranks in Cowboys history with other great free agent finds like Cornell Green, Cliff Harris, Drew Pearson and Everson Walls. "Like playing middle linebacker, the more you play the free safety position, the more you see and the better you anticipate," Tom Landry says. "Michael keeps getting better and better because of his experience." GAMES/STARTS: 1981 (15/15), 1982 (9/9), 1983 (16/16), 1984 (16/16), 1985 (16/16). Total — 72/72.

COLLEGE: Despite being a three-year starter and a co-captain at Rice, Downs' play as a senior was hampered by a pinched nerve in his shoulder and he was not drafted. The Cowboys signed him as a free agent, along with fellow Dallas native and fellow future All-Pro Everson Walls, making 1981 a vintage year for Cowboys free agents.

PERSONAL: Michael Lynn Downs attended South Oak Cliff High School in Dallas, the same school as former teammate Harvey Martin. Michael earned degrees at Rice in business, political science and physical education. He has worked in youth marketing for the Dr Pepper Company of Dallas. During last season Michael wrote a weekly column for the Dallas Morning News. In the offseason he served as manager of the Hoopsters, the players' basketball team. Michael and wife Vanessa have a daughter, Carolyn (6/9/84).

Kenny Duckett ★ 86

WIDE RECEIVER • WAKE FOREST • 5th YEAR
HT: 5-11 • WT: 183 • BORN: 10/1/59 • FA FOR '85

PRO: The Cowboys signed Kenny Duckett for the last three games of 1985 to replace the injured Robert Lavette on kickoff returns and to provide depth at the wide receiver position. Duckett became the main kick return man in the second half of the Cincinnati game (12/8). He had his best game as a Cowboy against the Rams in the playoffs, averaging 24.8 yards on four returns. Duckett started the 1985 season with the Saints, who placed him on injured reserve with a hand injury in preseason. He was released by New Orleans on 10/15. Kenny missed five games in 1984 due to a diabetic condition but still managed a 20.0 average on 29 kick returns in the games he played. His best season came in 1983 when he caught 31 passes and averaged 21.8 yards on 33 kickoff returns. In 1982 he averaged a career-high 16.3 yards per catch. He was drafted in the third round of the 1982 draft by the Saints. GAMES/STARTS: 1982 (7/0-N.O.), 1983 (14/1-N.O.), 1984 (11/0-N.O.), 1985 (3/0). Total — 35/1.

COLLEGE: An honorable mention All-America at Wake Forest, Duckett set a school record in 1980 for TD receptions in a season with 12. A three-year starter for the Demon Deacons, Kenny caught 109 passes for 1,507 yards and 19 TDs during his collegiate career. Kenny played for former Cowboys assistant coach John Mackovic, who was head coach at Wake Forest until 1981.

PERSONAL: A native of Winston-Salem, N.C., Kenneth Wayne Duckett attended Reynolds High School where he was an All-America in football and baseball. He rushed for more than 2,000 yards and scored 20 TDs in his high schcol career. The Los Angeles Dodgers drafted Duckett out of high school but he opted for a football career. Duckett, who majored in speech communications/broadcasting and theatrical arts, is the chairman for the Diabetes Association in North Carolina.

John Dutton ★ 78

DEFENSIVE TACKLE • NEBRASKA • 13th YEAR
HT: 6-7 • WT: 268 • BORN: 2/6/51 • TRADE, BALT., '79

PRO: The senior member of the Cowboys in both age and NFL experience, Dutton faced a familiar task going into training camp in 1986. This time it was Kevin Brooks, the Cowboys' No. 1 draft choice in '85, who was challenging John for his starting defensive left tackle position. "Dutton is a solid player," says defensive coordinator Ernie Stautner. "He's been fighting off contenders for quite a while." Dutton, along with Mike Renfro, was the only Dallas regular in '85 who had ever worn another team's uniform. John was acquired from the Baltimore Colts midway in the 1979 season (for the Cowboys' first two draft choices in '80) to fill the gap left by Ed Jones' one-year sabbatical to pursue a boxing career. When Jones returned the next season, Dutton shifted one position over to share time with Larry Cole at left tackle. Cole retired after the '80 season, and Dutton moved in at the position. In 1985, despite coming out on most obvious passing downs, Dutton recorded four quarterback traps, his second highest total as a Cowboy. With Baltimore, he was an All-Pro defensive end who sacked the QB 17 times in 1975 and 13 times in '76. He had been the Colts' No. 1 draft choice in '74, the fifth pick overall in the year that saw the Cowboys make Ed Jones the first player selected.

COLLEGE: A two-year starter and senior captain, Dutton was a consensus All-America in 1973. He played in two Orange Bowls and one Cotton Bowl with Nebraska. The Cornhuskers won the national championship in his sophomore season. John also threw the discus for the Nebraska track team.

PERSONAL: John Owen Dutton and wife Ginny live in Dallas with son Mason (8/4/79) and daughter Hayden Lee (8/21/83). They also own 80 acres in Lincoln, Neb. Ginny, a ballet dancer, studied under the renowned Edward Villela. John attended Rapid City (S.D.) High School and attracted more scholarship offers for basketball than football. He has a degree in business administration. Dutton works with Miller Beer Distributors of Dallas.

Ron Fellows ★ 27

CORNERBACK • MISSOURI • 6th YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 180 • BORN: 11/7/58 • D-7A FOR '81

PRO: Ron Fellows spent a frustrating season in 1985, struggling with a sprained knee that caused him to miss five starts and eventually resulted in off-season arthroscopic surgery. The knee injury came in the first quarter of the opening night game against Washington, and followed an outstanding training camp for Fellows. "Ron played kind of loose last year after coming back from the injury," says Tom Landry. "But, with his speed, quickness and man-to-man coverage ability, he has the potential to be a top player." Despite his problems, Fellows intercepted four paasses in '85 and his 20 passes defensed trailed only Everson Walls (22) for the Cowboys. The lone draft choice in the Dallas starting secondary last year (Walls, Michael Downs and Dextor Clinkscale signed out of college as free agents), Fellows is a terrific athlete who was a receiver in college. The Cowboys switched him to defense in rookie training camp in '81, and by the 11th game that year he was the regular right cornerback on passing downs. Ron has shown a knack for the big play during his Dallas career, scoring touchdowns with a blocked field goal and an intercepted pass and making several key contributions in pivotal games. And, until that troublesome '85 season came along, he'd never missed a game. GAMES/STARTS: 1981 (16/0), 1982 (9/0), 1983 (16/0), 1984 (16/16), 1985 (13/11). Total — 70/27.

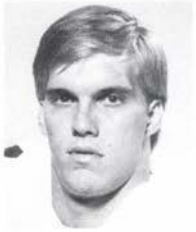
COLLEGE: Fellows played cornerback at Butler, Kan., Community College. He transferred to Missouri and became a receiver midway through his junior year of '79. In '80 he led the Tigers with 33 catches for 586 yards and four TDs. He was chosen Big Eight player of the week after catching six passes for 99 yards against Iowa State. Fellows was a hurdler in junior college.

PERSONAL: A native of South Bend, Ind., Ronald Lee Fellows studied elementary education at Missouri. Ron, wife Lillie and son Ron Jr. (11/16/85) live in Dallas and operate a fashion jewelry business.

Todd Fowler ★ 46



RUNNING BACK • STEPHEN F. AUSTIN • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 218 • BORN: 6/9/62 • S1 FOR '84

PRO: After spending his first season in the NFL backing up Timmy Newsome and working on special teams, Todd Fowler may be ready to contend for the starting fullback spot in '86. Fowler, who played two seasons in the USFL, possesses the tools needed for the position. "He's smart, he knows our system and the thing is he's a great competitor," said Coach Tom Landry. "He doesn't have the great speed, but he has a toughness about him. He'll block and catch and he'll run tough. That's what a fullback is supposed to do in our system." Fowler was placed on injured reserve with a knee injury from the San Diego preseason game. He was activated before the St. Louis game (11/4) and in that game, his first in the NFL, he played all of the second half at fullback due to an injury to Newsome. Fowler was drafted by Dallas in the first round of the NFL supplemental draft of USFL players in 1984. In two seasons with the Houston Gamblers he rushed for 1,405 yards and 14 TDs on 262 carries. He also caught 51 passes for 540 yards and three touchdowns. He set a USFL single-game rushing mark with 208 yards vs. Denver in 1984. GAMES/STARTS: 1985 (8/0). Total — 8/0.

COLLEGE: After two years as a strong safety and tight end at Henderson, Texas, Junior College, Fowler transferred to Stephen F. Austin. A second-team All-Lone Star Conference selection at tight end his senior year, Todd caught 48 passes for 469 yards in his two years with the Lumberjacks.

PERSONAL: A native of Van, Texas, 50 miles east of Dallas, Fowler was a second-team all-state tight end at Van High School where he was coached by his father Mal, who played fullback at TCU in the early 50s. After leading his team to the state championship his senior year, Todd, who also lettered in track, was named to the All-East Texas All-Decade team as a strong safety. Fowler runs Free State Drilling, an east Texas oil company, along with his brother Jeff. He spent the offseason working on a physical education degree from Stephen F. Austin.

Leon Gonzalez ★ 83

WIDE RECEIVER • BETHUNE-COOKMAN • 2nd YEAR
HT: 5-10 • WT: 162 • BORN: 9/21/63 • D-8 FOR '85

PRO: Leon "Speedy" Gonzalez turned in an impressive performance in his rookie training camp last year to earn a spot on the roster. Gonzalez possesses an outstanding pair of hands, and he had gained a lot of experience playing in a pro-style offense at Bethune-Cookman. In preseason Leon caught five passes for 93 yards, including a fine 24-yard touchdown reception against Houston (8/31). He opened the season backing up Mike Renfro and returning punts. Bunions slowed him down, however, and eventually required surgery. Gonzalez went on injured reserve with the foot ailment on Dec. 5 and did not return to action. GAMES/STARTS: 1985 (11/0).

COLLEGE: Gonzalez posted impressive numbers in his final two years at Bethune-Cookman, catching 99 passes for 1,659 yards and 15 touchdowns. He earned all-Mideastern Athletic Conference honors both years. He caught 43 passes for 718 yards and six touchdowns as a junior. In '84 he led the MEAC in receiving with 56 receptions for 941 yards and nine TDs. He also caught a career-long 80-yard touchdown pass.

PERSONAL: Leon Eugene Gonzalez III played football, basketball and was a sprinter on the track team at Ribault High School in his hometown of Jacksonville, Fla. Leon earned his degree in business administration from Bethune-Cookman.

Norm Granger ★ 28

RUNNING BACK • IOWA • 2nd YEAR
HT: 5-9 • WT: 220 • BORN: 9/14/61 • FA FOR '86

PRO: Norm Granger re-joins the Cowboys as a free agent in 1986 after he was released by the Cowboys before the final preseason game last year. Drafted in the fifth round by Dallas in 1984, Granger played in 15 games, mostly on special teams. He made a big play by recovering a fumble on punt coverage in an early season victory over Chicago (9/30). Very similar in physical stature to Robert Newhouse, the Cowboys' No. 4 all-time rusher, Granger runs out of the fullback spot. "Norm is strictly a fullback who is a strong runner," says Tom Landry. "He has potential at that position." GAMES/STARTS: 1984 (15/0).

COLLEGE: Granger was a three-year starter at fullback for the Iowa Hawkeyes, and was the only player ever to captain the team for two years. As a freshman he led with Big Ten by averaging nearly 30 yards per kickoff return.

PERSONAL: A native of Newark, New Jersey, Norman Lance Granger was a high school All-America at Barringer High School. He gained 1,900 yards, scored 13 touchdowns and won the Newark Academic Scholar-Athlete Award his senior year. Last fall Granger earned his degree in recreational therapy from Iowa. Norm and his wife Leila live in Waterloo, Iowa, with their daughter Lastascia (5/11/85).

HT: 6-1 • WT: 228 • BORN: 1/17/53 • D-7 FOR '75

PRO: Over the past two seasons Mike Hegman has played the best football of his Cowboys career. Even though he was replaced in passing situations, Hegman finished fourth on the team and led all linebackers with a career-high 5½ sacks in 1985. Since the beginning of 1984 he has recorded more sacks (9) than in his first eight years combined with the club. After intercepting a career-high three passes in 1984, Hegman had more tackles (79) in 1985 than any other season except 1980 when he had 85. Mike earned the defensive game ball from the coaches with a team-high eight tackles against Philadelphia (11/24). He also had a season-high nine tackles and an interception vs. Atlanta (10/27). A starter since 1979 when Thomas Henderson was released with four games left in the season, Hegman recovered a fumble in the endzone for a TD at Philadelphia (10/19) and had two interceptions against Seattle (11/27) in his first full season as a starter in 1980. He suffered a dislocated elbow in the playoff opener vs. the Rams (12/28) and missed the final two playoff games. His bad luck continued in the 1981 season-opener against Washington (9/6) when he broke a bone in his right forearm and missed the next five games. In '83 Mike returned a fumble nine yards for a touchdown against the Raiders (10/23) to put Dallas ahead in the fourth quarter. In '84 the coaches awarded Mike with game balls after victories over the Eagles and the Colts. "Mike's the kind of football player who doesn't make many mistakes and he's got great football instincts," says linebacker coach Jerry Tubbs. The best evidence of those instincts came in Super Bowl XIII when Hegman swiped the ball from Pittsburgh's Terry Bradshaw and raced 37 yards for a second-quarter touchdown. GAMES/STARTS: 1976 (14/0), 1977 (14/1), 1978 (16/3), 1979 (16/5), 1980 (16/16), 1981 (11/10), 1982 (9/9), 1983 (16/16), 1984 (16/16), 1985 (16/15). Total — 144/91.

COLLEGE: Hegman transferred from Alabama A&M and made Tennessee State's football team as a walk-on. He played middle linebacker on State's 10-0 1973 team, led the club in tackles in '74 and played on the same defense with Ed "Too Tall' Jones.

PERSONAL: A native of Memphis, (Northside High), Michael William Hegman has a degree from Tennessee State in physical education. Mike has participated in fund-raising events for St. Jude's Children's Hospital in Memphis, the Special Olympics and the Muscular Dystrophy Association. He has a daughter, Mikia (8/22/76).

Tony Hill ★ 80

WIDE RECEIVER • STANFORD • 10th YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 202 • BORN: 6/23/56 • D-3A FOR '77

PRO: Nineteen-eighty-five proved to be a record-setting year for Tony Hill and in 1986 more records should fall his way. With a nine-yard catch against the Giants (12/15) Tony broke club records for catches in a season and consecutive games with at least one reception. He enters the '86 season with a catch in each of his last 59 games. Hill and Mike Renfro combined for 134 catches last year, breaking the club record of 115 catches set by Hill and Drew Pearson in 1979. In 1986 Tony has a shot at becoming the Cowboys' all-time leader in receptions and receiving yards. He enters the season with career totals of 430 catches and 7,218 yards. Drew Pearson holds both records with 489 receptions and 7,822 yards. Against Detroit (9/15) Tony caught a career-high 11 passes and his 181 receiving yards were second only to his 213 yards vs. Philadelphia in 1979. He earned a coaches' offensive game ball vs. Atlanta with 10 catches for 161 yards and a TD. On Thanksgiving Day against St. Louis (11/28) Tony caught three passes, two for touchdowns including a 53-yarder and threw a 42-yard pass to Doug Cosbie to set up another TD. Selected to the Pro Bowl for the third time in '85, Hill was named honorable mention All-Pro by AP, All-NFC by Football News and second team All-NFC by UPI. "Tony is our big play man," said coach Tom Landry. "He has that ability to make the key play. He threatens the defense because he has the excellent burst of speed to get under a ball that's deep. He's a very explosive player, the type that can turn a short play into a deep play in a hurry." Despite his record-setting performance Hill was hampered by a hamstring injury at the end of the season and missed the San Francisco game (12/22). With 26 100-yard games Hill has led the Cowboys in receiving yards for eight straight years, every season since he became a starter. Only injuries and the players' strike kept Hill from 1,000 yard seasons from 1981 thru '84. In '84 Tony injured his shoulder in the season opener and missed five games. He still had a career-high five 100-yard receiving games. An injured foot in '83 forced Hill to miss four games and the strike held Tony to nine games in 1982. Hill set a club playoff record with nine receptions in the 1983 Wild Card loss to the Rams (12/26). He has made three game-winning catches. In '79 his 22-yard quick screen with two minutes left beat Chicago (9/16) and an eight-yarder with 39 seconds left clinched the NFC East title for Dallas in a dramatic comeback victory over Washington (12/16). His 28-yard scoring catch with 45 seconds left lifted the Cowboys over St. Louis in 1980 (11/2). Hill was obtained with a draft choice acquired from Philadelphia in 1975 for former All-Pro guard John Niland. GAMES/STARTS: 1977 (14/0), 1978 (16/13), 1979 (16/15), 1980 (16/13), 1981 (16/9), 1982 (9/8), 1983 (12/9), 1984 (11/11), 1985 (15/14). Total — 125/92.

COLLEGE: Hill broke all of former 49ers All-Pro Gene Washington's receiving records at Stanford. Tony caught 140 passes in four years for 2,225 yards and 18 touchdowns, including 55 catches for 916 yards in 1975.

PERSONAL: Leroy Anthony Hill, Jr., serves as chairman of the Dallas chapter of the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation. In 1981 he started the Tony Hill Sports Camp for underprivileged children in his Long Beach, Calif. hometown. Tony was a quarterback at Long Beach Polytechnic High School. In 1978 Long Beach honored Tony as its athlete of the years. He has a degree from Stanford in political science. Hill lives in Dallas with his wife Mildred and daughters Cassidy (10/6/83) and Kelli (2/21/86).

Jim Jeffcoat ★ 77

DEFENSIVE END • ARIZONA STATE • 4th YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 263 • BORN: 4/1/61 • D-1 FOR '83

PRO: In 1985 Jim Jeffcoat stamped himself as a future Pro Bowler. The defensive right end has improved so much since taking over the starting assignment from Harvey Martin in 1984 that it's only a matter of time until he receives the proper recognition. Since his arrival as the Cowboys' No. 1 draft choice in 1983, Jeffcoat has worked hard both on the field practicing techniques and off the field studying film to better understand the flex defense. During the offseason in '85 he learned to be aggressive through watching films of former Cowboys defensive linemen Bob Lilly and George Andrie. The work paid off as Jeffcoat's aggressiveness keyed two of Dallas' most important victories of 1985. In Washington (11/10) Jeffcoat sacked Joe Theismann a club-record five times and had a club-season high 11 solo tackles. In the game that decided the NFC East Division title against the Giants (12/15) Jeffcoat turned the game around by intercepting a tipped pass and returning it 65 yards for a touchdown. He was named NFC defensive player of the week and received the coaches' defensive game ball for both games. Over the last two years Jeffcoat has recorded more sacks (23½) than any other Cowboys player. He finished second behind Ed Jones' 13 with 12 traps last year and in 1984 his 11½ sacks were second to Randy White's 12½. Jim emerged as a big play guy in 1984, recovering a White-induced fumble in the endzone for the touchdown that tied the score at 27 with 2:53 to play against the Saints (10/21). The Cowboys, who had trailed 27-6 entering the fourth quarter, went on to win 30-27 in overtime. After appearing in all 16 games as a rookie, mostly on special teams, Jeffcoat has started 32 straight games. GAMES/STARTS: 1983 (16/0), 1984 (16/16), 1985 (16/16). Total — 48/32.

COLLEGE: A three-year starter at Arizona State, Jim earned All-Pac 10 and honorable mention All-America honors after anchoring the 1982 Sun Devil defense that led the nation. He was named outstanding defensive player in Arizona State's 1983 Fiesta Bowl victory over Oklahoma, making 16 tackles, causing a fumble and getting a QB sack.

PERSONAL: In addition to the normal offseason regimen of running and weightlifting, Jim is a faithful participant in an aerobic dancing class that meets at 6 a.m. From a family of six children, James Wilson

Ed Jones ★ 72

DEFENSIVE END • TENNESSEE STATE • 12th YEAR
HT: 6-9 • WT: 287 • BORN: 2/23/51 • D-1A FOR 74

PRO: Cowboys defensive coordinator Ernie Stautner had some bad news for opposing offensive linemen during the 1985-86 off-season. "Ed Jones," said Stautner, "is working harder than any year since he's been here." Apparently spurred by being left off the Pro Bowl team for the second year in a row, "Too Tall" approached the off-season conditioning program with unusual vigor. Jones left football after the 1978 season to pursue a boxing career, and won all six of his fights before deciding to return to the Cowboys in '80. Since then, with his concentration solely on football, the big man has more than lived up to the star billing given him when he was the first player chosen in the 1974 draft. The seemingly indestructible Jones has started in 147 straight regular season games (169 including playoffs) and has never missed a game (161 regular season, 183 with playoffs). Ed had Pro Bowl years in 1981-82-83, and probably should have been voted to the team in '85 despite a hamstring injury that bothered him all season. He led the Cowboys with a career-high 13 quarterback traps. "Ed had his best year since his second year back from boxing," asserts Stautner. As usual, Jones was at his best in the biggest games, and was the key figure in the biggest play of the year for the Cowboys. He batted the Giants' Phil Simms' pass into the hands of teammate Jim Jeffcoat, who rumbled 65 yards for a touchdown to dramatically swing the momentum in the Cowboys' 28-21 December victory for the NFC East title. It was the most timely of Ed's seven 1985 pass deflections. If Dallas has any concerns about Jones, it is his age (35 last Feb. 23). But, says Stautner, "Ed has at least another couple of years of peak performance left. By that I mean he is at the top of his game and should remain there for a while. He's an unusual athlete." GAMES/STARTS: 1974 (14/0), 1975 (14/14), 1976 (14/14), 1977 (14/14), 1978 (16/16), 1979 (DNP), 1980 (16/16), 1981 (9/9), 1982 (16/16), 1983 (16/16), 1984 (16/16), 1985 (16/16). TOTAL — 161/147.

COLLEGE: Jones was a two-time All-America at Tennessee State where he also played two seasons of basketball. A college teammate dubbed him "Too Tall." Jones did not begin playing football until his senior year at Merry High in Jackson, Tenn.

PERSONAL: Edward Lee Jones, a native of Jackson, Tenn., is a partner in Dallas-based Imperial Investors. He has a degree in health and physical education, and all seven of his brothers and sisters also earned their college degrees. The multi-talented Jones has appeared in two movies and made a guest appearance on the TV comedy "Diff'rent Strokes." He enjoys singing rhythm and blues (especially "Stormy Monday") and has released a record. He has been active in promoting the Special Olympics and other charity causes.

Crawford Ker ★ 68

GUARD • FLORIDA • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 293 • BORN: 5/5/62 • D-3 FOR '85

PRO: One of the big hits of training camp last year was a colorful third-round draft choice named Crawford "Big Daddy" Ker, whose size, strength and attitude were a welcomed addition to the offensive line. After a college career at tackle, Ker looked impressive working at guard in his rookie year with the Cowboys. Unfortunately, he developed a tight back that sent him to the injured reserve list on Oct. 23 for the rest of the season. The avid weightlifter, who also has conditioned himself by pushing pickup trucks uphill and taking karate lessons, pronounced himself in outstanding condition entering the 1986 season, with hopes of winning a starting job. "The question with Ker is, do you leave him at guard or move him to tackle?" says Tom Landry. "We'll start him at guard, but if he proves to be our best tackle he may play there. He showed a lot of ability last year before hurting his back." Ker has bench-pressed 540 pounds, a Cowboys record. GAMES/STARTS: 1985 (5/0).

COLLEGE: Ker was a walk-on at Western Arizona Junior College, earned a scholarship, then became a JC All-America. He transferred to Florida and started 13 games at tackle, earning second-team All-Southeastern Conference and honorable mention All-America honors from Associated Press in 1984.

PERSONAL: Crawford Francis Ker was born in Philadelphia, but moved with his parents to Florida where he became an all-conference football star at Dunedin, Fla., High School. Crawford's parents, Anne and George Ker, are natives of Scotland who moved to the United States in 1956. George Ker served as a guard at London's Buckingham Palace. In the offseason Crawford took karate lessons.

Robert Lavette ★ 29

RUNNING BACK • GEORGIA TECH • 2nd YEAR
HT: 5-11 • WT: 199 • BORN: 9/8/63 • D-4 FOR '85

PRO: Robert Lavette has been a big producer every step so far of his football career. His NFL prospects also appear bright based on his showing in training camp and preseason last year. Possessed of great natural instincts, Lavette led the Cowboys in preseason games in rushing yards with 108 and yards per attempt with 5.7 a carry. During the season Lavette backed up Tony Dorsett and was the team's top kickoff return man. He had the Cowboys' longest return of the season, a 34-yarder against Chicago. Lavette sprained a knee covering a kickoff against Philadelphia on Nov. 24 and spent the final three games on injured reserve. "Lavette showed a lot of running ability as a rookie," Tom Landry says. "He has a lot of burst and a knack for making the right move. He was coming on as a kick returner when he hurt his knee. He's our hope this year in the kick return area. He has a chance to be a real good one. He has a good knack of running. He's elusive and hard to bring down." Lavette was the eighth runner taken in the 1985 draft. GAMES/STARTS: 1985 (12/0).

COLLEGE: Lavette finished his career as Georgia Tech's all-time leading rusher, receiver and scorer. In setting 19 school records in four seasons, he rushed for 4,066 yards. He also caught 114 passes for 862 yards and scored 46 touchdowns. He had 18 100-yard games and accounted for 5,393 total yards, an average of 125.3 per game. As a sophomore in '82 he rushed for a career-high 203 yards on 38 carries against No. 1-ranked Georgia, outgaining Herschel Walker by 40 yards.

PERSONAL: At Cartersville, Ga., High School, Robert Lee Lavette, Jr., gained 5,870 career rushing yards and was named Georgia Class AA back of the year as a senior. He set nine school career records, seven season marks and three single-game records. Robert has four brothers and three sisters. His cousin is center Ray Donaldson of the Indianapolis Colts.

Eugene Lockhart ★ 56

LINEBACKER • HOUSTON • 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 234 • BORN: 4/2/61 • D-6A FOR '84

PRO: Eugene Lockhart is the latest name on the short but illustrious list of Dallas Cowboys middle linebackers. It started with Jerry Tubbs, followed by Lee Roy Jordan, followed by Bob Breunig, followed by Lockhart. That's it, in 27 years. In 1985, Lockhart's first full year as a starter replacing the retired Breunig, Gene led the Cowboys in tackles, fumble recoveries and forced fumbles. His only interception of the year resulted in a 19-yard return for the winning touchdown against Pittsburgh (10/13). Through all that, Lockhart was involved in the learning process that comes with Tom Landry's intricate defense. "Eugene was trying to absorb the defense mentally last year," says Landry, "and it slowed him down a little. But I think he'll be OK. He's a competitor who works hard and hits hard." Hitting was what the coaches noticed about Lockhart in his rookie training camp. The other players nicknamed him "Eugene the Hitting Machine" for the trail of dazed ballcarriers he left on the Thousand Oaks practice field. When chronic back problems forced the veteran Breunig to the sidelines in '84, Lockhart became the only rookie ever to start at middle linebacker for the Cowboys and was named to most of the all-rookie teams. He wound up with eight starts in his rookie year (missing one game with a broken thumb) and was 15-for-16 in '85. Eugene would have started every game, but the Cowboys opened in a prevent defense against San Francisco (12/22). A tireless worker, Lockhart led by example in the 1985-86 off-season, posting a perfect attendance record in the Cowboys' conditioning program. GAMES/STARTS: 1984 (15/8), 1985 (16/15). Total — 31/23.

COLLEGE: Lockhart, a two-year starter at outside linebacker, led Houston in 1983 with 134 tackles. A tri-captain, he earned All-Southwest Conference honors and his team's most valuable player award his senior year. A 1981 reserve for the Cougars, Lockhart won a starting berth in 1982 following a strong 1981 finish and fine performance in the spring.

PERSONAL: A Crockett, Texas, native, Eugene Lockhart, Jr., was an all-district performer in football, basketball and baseball at Crockett High School. He also ran the mile for the track team and was a National Honor Society member. He earned his degree in marketing at Houston

Junior Miller ★ 90

TIGHT END • NEBRASKA • 6th YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 240 • BORN: 11/26/57 • FA FOR '86

PRO: With hopes that he can return to his Pro Bowl form of the early 80s, the Cowboys signed veteran tight end Junior Miller on 5/30/86. After playing out his option with the New Orleans Saints in 1984, Miller did not play in 1985. The seventh player picked in the 1980 draft by Atlanta, Miller moved into the starting lineup after the second game and caught 46 passes for 564 yards and nine TDs — all career highs. He was named All-NFC (UPI), All-Rookie (UPI, PFWA, Football Digest) and as the starter on the NFC Pro Bowl squad that year. Miller earned a spot in the Pro Bowl again in 1981, but was moved to H-back a week before the start of the '83 season by new head coach Dan Henning. After the final preseason game in 1984, the Falcons traded Miller to New Orleans where he received more playing time as the year progressed. Junior had his best game as a pro against New England (9/14) his rookie season catching eight passes for 117 yards and two touchdowns. GAMES/STARTS: 1980 (16/14-Atlanta), 1981 (16/16-Atlanta), 1982 (9/9-Atlanta), 1983 (15/6-Atlanta), 1984 (15/0-New Orleans), 1985 (DNP). Total — 71/45.

COLLEGE: A consensus All-America, Miller set several tight end receiving records for the Cornhuskers. He caught 61 career passes for 1,123 yards and 13 TDs and played in the Hula and Japan Bowls following his senior year.

PERSONAL: A native of Midland, Tex., Selvia Miller, Jr., attended Robert E. Lee High School where he was an All-America in football and all-state in basketball. Junior and his wife Carol live in Lincoln, Neb., with daughter Cara (8/19/81) and son Seth (3/5/83). A physical education major at Nebraska, Miller spent fall of '85 working in construction. He speaks at churches and schools in the Lincoln area.

Timmy Newsome ★ 30

RUNNING BACK • WINSTON-SALEM STATE • 7th YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 237 • BORN: 5/17/58 • D-6 FOR '80

PRO: After starting only five games his first five seasons, big Timmy Newsome was 14-for-14 (missing two with injuries) in 1985 after Ron Springs was released. Timmy followed Tony Dorsett among Cowboys rushers, but had just 252 yards, a 2.9 average per carry and two touchdowns. In 1984, as a backup, Newsome had 268 yards, averaged 4.1 and scored five touchdowns. "I don't know that Timmy Newsome didn't do what we asked of him," says Tom Landry. "Maybe we just didn't rely on him as much as we should have to take the load off Dorsett. I know we need more production at fullback. We need a strong fullback, Timmy or someone else, who can pick up the tough yards, catch the football and produce six to seven hundred yards." Then, looking at Newsome's 100 career catches for 1,035 yards and six touchdowns, Landry adds, "You'd like to see Timmy Newsome try it at tight end. If you could come up with a good fullback or another running back, he could surely be a good tight end." Newsome's unusual combination of size, speed and athletic ability continues to intrigue the Dallas brain trust. GAMES/STARTS: 1980 (16/1), 1981 (15/0), 1982 (9/0), 1983 (16/0), 1984 (15/4), 1985 (14/14). Total — 85/19.

COLLEGE: Newsome was a two-time NAIA first-team All-America and 1979 player of the year in the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association. In four years at Winston-Salem, Timmy rushed for 3,833 yards (6.1 per carry) and 38 touchdowns. He led the conference in rushing and

Steve Pelluer ★ 16

QUARTERBACK • WASHINGTON • 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 208 • BORN: 7/29/62 • D-5A FOR '84

PRO: Steve Pelluer's NFL regular-season debut at quarterback last year was the stuff of which dreams are made. Called on for the first time in the most pressure-filled situation imaginable, Pelluer delivered in grand style. With the Cowboys leading the Giants 21-14 entering the fourth quarter of the Dec. 15 game to decide the NFC East championship, the Cowboys' offense was in the hands of its third-string quarterback. The first two QBs, Danny White and Gary Hogeboom, had been knocked out of the game with injuries. Putting aside his headset and clipboard, Steve entered the game to take the first snap of his career at quarterback. On his second series Pelluer coolly directed a 72-yard drive for what turned out to be the winning touchdown. The key play was Pelluer's 28-yard pass to rookie Karl Powe on a third-and-15 from the Dallas 48. Both youngsters correctly read and adjusted to a Giants blitz on the play. In his first moment of glory, Pelluer had displayed the same knack of moving the team he had displayed in rookie scrimmages and preseason games. "Steve's performance in the Giants game was a real bright spot that you build on," Landry says. "I'm encouraged by his performance in that game under great pressure. He's ready to move up to number two and do the job for us." With the offseason trade of Hogeboom, Pelluer entered the 1986 season as White's backup. Ironically, Pelluer's first regular-season playing time also came in a pressure situation. With Hogeboom hurt, Steve held for Rafael Septien's game-winning field goal in overtime against New Orleans in 1984 (10/21). GAMES: 1984 (1/0), 1985 (2/0). Total — 3/0.

COLLEGE: En route to Pac 10 offensive player of the year honors in 1983, Pelluer set six Washington records, including season completion percentage (67.2) and most consecutive passes thrown without an interception (137). He also led Washington to a school total offense mark of 4,365 yards in '83. The Huskies' second all-time leading passer, Steve completed 436-of-755 passes for 4,603 yards and 30 touchdowns. He was All-Pac 10, All-West Coast and honorable mention All-America in '83. As a sophomore he led the Huskies to the Pac 10 title and a 28-0 victory over Iowa in the Rose Bowl.

PERSONAL: Born in Yakima, Wash., and raised in Bellevue, Wash., Steven Carl Pelluer captained the football and basketball team at Interlake High School. He was a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete in 1979 when he earned all-state honors as a quarterback. He has a degree in building construction. In the offseason Steve bought and renovated a house in Seattle. He is involved with the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and Special Olympics, and serves on the board of the Doug Cosbie Youth Home. Steve's grandfather (Carl Gustafson), father (Arnie Pelluer) and brother (Scott) all played football at Washington State. Scott is a linebacker with the Saints and a former Cowboys draft choice. Another brother, Arnie, is a sophomore linebacker at Stanford.

Jesse Penn ★ 59

LINEBACKER • VIRGINIA TECH • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 217 • BORN: 9/6/62 • D-2 FOR '85

PRO: The 1986 season promised to be a pivotal one for this gifted athlete. "We've got a battle at right linebacker between (incumbent starter) Jeff Rohrer and Jesse Penn," said Tom Landry prior to training camp. "Penn has size and speed, but he needs to improve by turning himself loose. He's got to become more aggressive. Some of the problem is that in trying to absorb so much mentally in your first year you get yourself tied up thinking. But, if Penn moves in as a starter, he could improve our football team. His natural ability is awfully good." As a rookie, Penn showed flashes of the qualities Landry described. Jesse started against Cincinnati in place of the injured Rohrer, made five tackles and returned a blocked punt 49 yards for a touchdown. In the '85 preseason, one of his two interceptions went for 77 yards and a touchdown against Green Bay. In rookie training camp, as in college at Virginia Tech, Penn appeared to be a "big play" type of linebacker who could add pizazz to the Cowboys defense. GAMES/STARTS: 1985 (16/1).

COLLEGE: A two-year starter at standup defensive end, a position similar to outside linebacker, Penn intercepted eight passes to set a Virginia Tech career record for linemen. Jesse capped his senior year with outstanding performances in the Independence Bowl against Air Force and in the Blue-Gray All-Star game. The Cowboys rated Penn the top outside linebacker in the 1985 draft.

PERSONAL: A native of Martinsville, Va., Jesse Andrew Penn earned All-State honors in football and All-America honors in track at Martinsville High. He majored in communications at Virginia Tech.

Kurt Petersen ★ 65

GUARD • MISSOURI • 7th YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 278 • BORN: 6/17/57 • D-4 FOR '80

PRO: It didn't take Kurt Petersen long to make the transition from one side of the line to the other. Petersen has been the starting offensive right guard in five of his six seasons with the Cowboys, a remarkable accomplishment for someone who was a defensive lineman in college. Kurt had one of his better seasons last year, according to Tom Landry, starting all 16 games and earning a game ball from the coaching staff against St. Louis (11/28). Injuries nagged Petersen in 1983 and '84, forcing him to miss a handful of games, although when healthy he produced. He received a game ball in 1983 against New Orleans (9/25) and in '84 at St. Louis (11/11). Pete started all nine games in 1982, earning a game ball for his play against Cleveland (11/25) and second-team All-Pro honors from the Newspaper Enterprise Association. Called "the Cowboys' blue-ribbon workhorse" by a Dallas newspaper, Petersen combines size, quickness and intelligence with superior strength. According to conditioning coach Bob Ward, Kurt is the strongest player overall on the team. Petersen was thrust into the starting lineup his second year when a knee injury to center Robert Shaw in the second game of '81 forced the Cowboys to move right guard Tom Rafferty to center and Petersen to right guard. GAMES/STARTS: 1980 (16/0), 1981 (16/14), 1982 (9/9), 1983 (14/14), 1984 (13/13), 1985 (16/16). Total — 84/66.

COLLEGE: A linebacker his junior year, Petersen was moved to defensive tackle his senior season to give Missouri more inside quickness. A senior co-captain, Kurt tied for the team lead in fumble recoveries with four.

PERSONAL: St. Louis native (Lutheran High School) Kurt David Petersen has a degree in industrial engineering. Kurt is an outdoorsman who enjoys fishing, hunting, gardening and archery. Kurt, wife Karen and their children Aimee Lynn (12/20/84) and Kyle David (1/20/86) live in Carrollton, Texas.

Karl Powe ★ 81

WIDE RECEIVER • ALABAMA STATE • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 175 • BORN: 1/17/62 • D-7A FOR '85

PRO: The Cowboys were facing a third-and-15 situation in the fourth quarter against the New York Giants last December, and Dallas had to keep the drive alive to protect its lead in the Eastern Division championship showdown. Third-string quarterback Steve Pelluer, in the face of a New York blitz, fired over the middle to unknown rookie wide receiver Karl Powe. Powe grabbed the ball, slipped a tackle and zipped 28 yards for a first down and a big place in the history of the Cowboys' 1985 season. In the regular season finale the next week, starting for the injured Tony Hill against San Francisco (12/22). Powe caught seven passes for 127 yards — biggest numbers for a Cowboys rookie receiver since Drew Pearson in 1973—and thrust himself squarely in the picture for Dallas in 1986. "Powe had a lot of potential when he came to us out of Alabama State," said Tom Landry, "he just didn't have the maturity to really make a big move last year. I think he'll do it this year." Powe's 14 receptions for the season (for 237 yards and a 16.9 average per catch) were the most by a Cowboys rookie since all-time hero Pearson's 22 in '73. And, it was assistant coach Drew Pearson who spent long hours with Powe through training camp and the regular season, schooling him in the art of NFL receiving. Midway in the '85 campaign, Powe was talking with writers in the press room at Cowboys Ranch. He started to leave, then turned back and said, "You guys may not believe it now, but I'm gonna be a star some day." That prediction seems less far-fetched than it did a year ago. GAMES/STARTS: 1985 (15/1).

COLLEGE: Powe was a backup wide receiver through most of his career at Alabama State, mostly because he chose to participate in track (100M, 200M) instead of spring football. Still, Karl caught 40 passes for 817 yards (a 20.5 average) and six touchdowns in three seasons of varsity football. In '84 Powe led the SWAC in kickoff returns with a 27.3 average. His superior speed, size and athletic ability led the Cowboys to make him a seventh-round draft choice in '85.

PERSONAL: Karl Alonzo Powe (POE) is a native of Mobile, Ala., where he attended Blount High School earning letters in football, basketball, baseball and track. During the offseason Powe worked with a youth football camp in Mobile and served as King of the Mobile Mardi Gras. He received his degree in psychology and human services from Alabama State. Karl has a daughter, Kasheena (8/17/83).

Phil Pozderac ★ 75

TACKLE • NOTRE DAME • 5th YEAR
HT: 6-9 • WT: 282 • BORN: 12/19/59 • D-5 FOR '82

PRO: Phil Pozderac, the NFL's tallest player (he's a half-inch taller than Too Tall Jones), entered the 1986 season hoping to win the starting right tackle position. He has played extensively at both tackle positions. Poz was a starting tackle in 1984 and half of 1985 until an injured right knee forced him out of the lineup. After returning to action, Pozderac was moved to the right side to back up Jim Cooper. Poz won the starting left tackle position in '84 training camp. After seven games he moved over to right tackle to replace Cooper, who had broken an ankle. Pozderac received a coaches' game ball for his effort in a victory over Indianapolis in '84 (10/28). He opened last season as the starting left tackle but suffered the knee injury in the third game. He returned to start four more games at left tackle before moving to the right side. In '83 Pozderac backed up Pro Bowl left tackle Pat Donovan, including two starts when Donovan was injured. Pozderac also played left tackle on all short-yardage and goal line situations when the Cowboys went to the three tight end formation. He earned the coaches' offensive game ball for his play vs. Philadelphia (10/16) at right tackle in place of injured Jim Cooper. As a rookie in '82 Pozderac made an immediate impression in his first training camp. "I like his attitude," said Too Tall Jones, who battled Poz in drills. "He has a mean streak and for a rookie he's hard to intimidate. He doesn't back down. The more physical you get with him the more he comes at you." GAMES/STARTS: 1982 (7/0), 1983 (16/2), 1984 (15/14), 1985 (14/8). Total — 52/24.

COLLEGE: Pozderac started 23 consecutive games at right tackle his final two seasons at Notre Dame. His teammates voted him Notre Dame's most valuable player in 1981. He also won AP honorable mention All-America honors in '81. Pozderac entered Notre Dame carrying only 220 pounds on his 6-9 frame.

PERSONAL: Philip Maurice Pozderac (poz-DEH-rick) starred in football and basketball at Garfield Heights, Ohio, High School. He was born in Cleveland. Phil received his degree from Notre Dame in business finance.

Tom Rafferty ★ 64

CENTER • PENN STATE • 11th YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 264 • BORN: 8/2/54 • D-4 FOR '76

PRO: You couldn't ask much more from an offensive lineman than Tom Rafferty has given the Cowboys over the past decade. Since joining the club in 1976 Rafferty has never missed a game, playing in 167 straight, including playoffs. He has started 151 of the past 152 games, missing only the Tampa Bay game (10/9) in 1983 when he was limited by a toe injury to snapping on punts, extra points and field goals. An offensive captain in 1985 Tom is the only offensive lineman to start every game the past two years. A starter at right guard for four years (1977-80), Rafferty was pressed into service at center when Robert Shaw went down with a knee injury in the second game of '81. Rafferty's most noteworthy moment came when he teamed with guard Herb Scott on a "fold" block that started Tony Dorsett on his record-setting 99-yard touchdown run at Minnesota (1/3/83). "Rafferty's been a solid center for us," Tom Landry says. "He does his job and performs well and should be able to continue to do that." Rafferty won a starting job in only his second season, replacing All-Pro guard Blaine Nye in 1977. He played two games that season at center for injured John Fitzgerald, a preview of things to come. Rafferty won the Oak Farms MVP award in a playoff-clinching victory at Philadelphia (12/8). He shared his second MVP award with Fitzgerald in 1980 in a season-opening victory at Washington (9/8). Tom earned game balls in 1982 against Cleveland (11/25) and in the playoffs against Tampa Bay (1/9/83), and in 1984 against New England (11/22). GAMES/STARTS: 1976 (14/0), 1977 (14/14), 1978 (16/16), 1979 (16/16), 1980 (16/16), 1981 (16/16), 1982 (9/9), 1983 (16/15), 1984 (16/16), 1985 (16/16). Total — 149/134.

COLLEGE: A four-year starting guard at Penn State, Rafferty earned All-America honors from the Football News and the Football Writers Association in 1975. The Cowboys rated him the top pulling guard in the 1976 draft.

PERSONAL: Thomas Michael Rafferty was born in Syracuse and raised in Fayetteville, N.Y., where he became a high school All-America lacrosse player in addition to starring in football and basketball at Fayetteville-Manlius High School. Tom works in the offseason for Jim Eidson and Associates, a Dallas real estate company. He received a degree in physical education from Penn State and is studying for his master's in business at the University of Dallas. Tom and wife Donna live in Dallas with son J. Michael (7/14/81) and daughter Rachel Elizabeth (3/6/84).

Mike Renfro ★ 82

WIDE RECEIVER • TCU • 9th YEAR
HT: 6-0 • WT: 189 • BORN: 6/19/55 • TRADE, HOU., '84

PRO: In big games clutch players make big plays. In 1985 Mike Renfro was the Cowboys' clutch player. In the NFC Eastern Division title clinching victory over the Giants (12/15) Mike caught four passes for 123 yards and two touchdowns, including a 58-yarder. In other key division victories, Mike had a season-high 10 catches for 141 yards and two touchdowns against the Giants (10/6) and five receptions for 99 yards including a 55-yard touchdown in the season-opener against Washington (9/9). He received the coaches' offensive game ball for each of the three wins. "Mike Renfro had the best season of anybody last year," said coach Tom Landry. "He really performed well. He made two key plays, long touchdown catches against the Redskins and Giants, that probably won the division for us. He was probably as valuable a player as we had last year." Entering the 1985 season Renfro had season highs of 39 catches in 1981, 583 receiving yards in 1984 and three touchdowns in 1982. Last year he shattered those marks catching 60 passes for 955 yards and a team-high eight touchdowns. In his first seven years in the NFL Mike had never had a 100-yard receiving day. Last year he had three 100-yard games including two in a row to end the season. Acquired from Houston for Butch Johnson in the spring of 1984, Renfro was expected to play a role as a "possession" receiver in special situations. He performed beyond expectations, starting 11 games and catching 35 passes for 583 yards (a team-high 16.7 average) and two touchdowns. For good measure he threw a 49-yard scoring pass to Doug Donley in a 23-17 victory over the Eagles (9/16). In six seasons with the Oilers, Mike started 50 games and caught 160 passes for 2,183 yards and 11 touchdowns. Renfro's move to Dallas was something of a homecoming for him, since he was born and raised in the area and his father — former All-Pro wide receiver Ray Renfro — was an assistant coach for the Cowboys from 1968 through 1972. As a teenager, Mike was a Dallas ballboy. GAMES/STARTS: 1978 (14/10-Hou.), 1979 (15/2-Hous.), 1980 (16/15-Hou.), 1981 (12/12-Hou.), 1982 (9/4-Hou.), 1983 (7/7-Hou.), 1984 (16/11), 1985 (16/16). Total — 105/77 (32/27-Dallas).

COLLEGE: Renfro was a three-time All-Southwest Conference choice at TCU and ended his college career owning school records for career receptions (162), yards (2,739) and touchdowns (17). His 10 touchdown catches as a senior set a Southwest Conference record.

PERSONAL: Michael Ray Renfro was born and raised in Fort Worth, where he attended Arlington Heights High School. Mike has a degree in business management and works in the offseason for the Dugger Development real estate firm in Fort Worth. He and his wife Denise live on a 30-acre spread in Aledo, Tex. near Fort Worth with daughter Klayton Alicia (12/19/85). Mike supports many charities in the Dallas-Fort Worth area.

Howard Richards ★ 70

TACKLE • MISSOURI • 6th YEAR
HT: 6-6 • WT: 262 • BORN: 8/7/59 • D-1 FOR '81

PRO: The biggest challenge of Howard Richards' career was the rehabilitation of the injured knee that sidelined him for the last five games of 1984 and the first seven of '85. For his determination in successfully overcoming the injury, Richards was named the 1985 Ed Block Courage Award winner by the Cowboys' trainers and team captains. Howard looked with further resolve to a new challenge in 1986 — becoming the football player he was expected to become when the Cowboys drafted him in the first round of the 1981 draft, the 25th player selected overall that year. Now settled at left tackle, Richards has played four of the five offensive line positions in his career, skipping only center. He started eight games at left guard in 1982 after Herbert Scott injured a knee in the preseason finale. In '83 Richards spent most of the year shuttling plays with Scott at left guard, although he shuttled plays at right guard for two games and started one game at left tackle. Richards was expected to replace retired left tackle Pat Donovan in '84, but a training camp groin injury left him in a backup role to Phil Pozderac. Howard became the starting left tackle midway through the season after Pozderac moved to right tackle to replace the injured Jim Cooper. After starting four games, Howard injured his leg in his hometown of St. Louis (11/11) and missed the rest of the season. He underwent surgery to repair a torn tendon above his knee. GAMES/STARTS: 1981 (16/0), 1982 (8/8), 1983 (16/2), 1984 (11/4), 1985 (7/0). Total — 58/14.

COLLEGE: Richards started 40 consecutive games at right tackle for Missouri and capped his career by earning consensus All-Big Eight and second-team All-America honors in 1980. He was a finalist for the 1980 Lombardi Award, which goes to the nation's top collegiate lineman. Howard also received All-Big Eight honors his junior year.

PERSONAL: Howard Glenn Richards, Jr., was a football, basketball and baseball star at Southwest High School in St. Louis. His uncle is Ernie McMillan, former All-Pro offensive tackle with the St. Louis Cardinals. Howard is one of the most civic-minded Cowboys and an excellent speaker. He serves as spokesman for the Dallas-Fort Worth Ronald McDonald Houses and as secretary of the newly formed Doug Cosbie Youth Home. Howard also supports the Boys Clubs programs in the Dallas area, the Sickle Cell Anemia Association of Texas, Operation Child Find and the Texas School for the Deaf in Austin. Howard and wife Rhonda live in Dallas.

Jeff Rohrer ★ 50

LINEBACKER • YALE • 5th YEAR
HT: 6-2 • WT: 230 • BORN: 12/25/58 • D-2 FOR '82

PRO: After distinguishing himself on special teams for three years, Jeff Rohrer broke into the starting lineup in 1985 at right outside linebacker. Rohrer took over from Anthony Dickerson, who was traded to Buffalo on Aug. 27, the final cutdown day. Jeff turned in a steady performance, including a team-leading nine tackles in a victory at Houston (9/29). He missed one game (at Cincinnati) with a bruised foot and ankle. "Jeff made a lot of headway last year," Tom Landry said. "He made some good plays and overall did pretty well." Rohrer has been an outside linebacker most of his career, although he worked at middle linebacker in '84 training camp and through the first half of the season. When outside linebacker Billy Cannon suffered a neck injury midway through the '84 season, Rohrer moved back to the outside. "He's big, strong and very aggressive," Landry says. GAMES/STARTS: 1982 (8/0), 1983 (16/0), 1984 (16/0), 1985 (15/12). Total — 55/12.

COLLEGE: Rohrer was the highest NFL draft choice from Yale since 1969 when the Cowboys chose Calvin Hill in the first round. In 1981 Jeff was named to the Coaches All-Ivy League and the Coaches All-New England first teams after leading Ivy co-champ Yale in tackles with a school-record 136 stops (71 solo).

PERSONAL: Jeffrey Charles Rohrer was a National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete at Mira Costa High School in his native Manhattan Beach, Calif. He received his degree from Yale in administrative sciences. His hobbies include ceramics, scuba diving and karate. Jeff supports the Special Olympics program for the handicapped.

Brian Salonen ★ 89

LINEBACKER • MONTANA • 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 226 • BORN: 7/29/61 • D-10 FOR '84

PRO: The busiest Cowboys player in 1985 was Brian Salonen. On Wednesdays and Thursdays Salonen went to meetings and practiced with the defense backing up Mike Hegman. On Fridays he worked with the offense as the third tight end and since he was on every special team he had to attend those meetings and practices also. Salonen made the team in 1984 as a tight end, but was moved to linebacker, a position he hasn't played since high school, before training camp last year. "Brian loves to play linebacker," said coach Tom Landry. "He should improve with a year behind him assuming we don't move him back to tight end. It's just a learning problem for him, but he's an intelligent player." Salonen saw his only action at linebacker in '85 for an injured Hegman in the second half against St. Louis (11/28). In 1984 Brian played in all 16 games, mostly on special teams, and earned a game ball for his performance against New England (11/22). GAMES/STARTS: 1984 (16/0), 1985 (16/0). Total — 32/0.

COLLEGE: An All-America in NCAA Division 1-AA competition, Brian broke or tied four national records in becoming the most prolific receiver in the University of Montana history. His career totals were 151 catches for 1,882 yards and 12 touchdowns, including a senior season of 68 receptions for 832 yards and nine touchdowns. A co-captain as a senior, Brian was a three-time All-Big Sky and a second-team Academic All-America pick who played in the East-West Shrine Game.

PERSONAL: Brian Scott Salonen (suh-LOW-nen) was an all-state football player and all-state and All-America basketball player at Great Falls High in his hometown of Great Falls, Mont. His father, Bill, was an all-conference football and basketball player at Montana State and his brother, Brad, is a tight end at Montana. During the past offseason, Brian served as honorary chairman of the March of Dimes Walkathon in Great Falls and is on the Board of Directors of the Doug Cosbie Youth Home. Brian Salonen's Reach for the Stars football camp in Montana raises money for the Diabetes Association.

Mike Saxon ★ 4

PUNTER • SAN DIEGO STATE • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 187 • BORN: 7/10/62 • FA FOR '85

PRO: With flashes of brilliance in 1985 Mike Saxon showed he could become one of the best punters in the NFL. Mike did some of his best kicking under pressure last year. On his first punt as a professional, Mike booted a 57-yarder, which turned out to be his longest of the season. He went on to have his best game of the year averaging 48.8 yards per kick with a net average of 43.3, a long of 57 and four punts inside the opponent's 20 in that season opener against Washington (9/9). In his only playoff appearance Mike set a club playoff record with a 46.9 average on seven kicks against the Rams (1/4). "In his first year with us Mike Saxon lacked some consistency last year, but overall he did a good job," said coach Tom Landry. "With a good offseason program, he may improve to where he's one of the top punters in the league. He can hit the ball. He's got the strength to do it." Saxon's 41.9 average for the '85 season was the best ever by a Cowboys' rookie and the best by any Cowboys punter since Ron Widby's 43.3 average for the 1969 season. An 11th round draft choice by Detroit in 1984, Mike was released on the final cut after averaging 43.5 yards per kick in preseason. GAMES/STARTS: 1985 (16/0). Total — 16/0.

COLLEGE: A walk-on at San Diego State, Saxon set school records for punting average in a game (54.8 vs. BYU in '83), a season (45.5 in '83) and a career (44.1). An honorable mention All-America, Saxon also holds the record for longest punt in Aztecs history with an 80 yarder against BYU in 1982. Mike attended Pasadena City College before moving on to San Diego State.

PERSONAL: A native of Whittier, Calif., Michael Eric Saxon starred in baseball and as a wide receiver, defensive back and punter at Arcadia High School. Mike spent the offseason in Newport Beach, Calif. and worked with Ben Agajanian's youth kicking camps in Long Beach. Saxon majored in business management at San Diego State.

Chris Schultz ★ 66

TACKLE • ARIZONA • 3rd YEAR
HT: 6-8 • WT: 288 • BORN: 2/16/60 • D-7 FOR '83

PRO: While on injured reserve for the entire 1984 season, Chris Schultz worked hard, building himself up from 265 to 288 pounds. In 1985 that hard work paid off when Chris worked his way into the starting lineup replacing Phil Pozderac at left tackle with five games remaining. Schultz also started four games at left tackle, including his first pro start against Houston (9/29), in place of an injured Pozderac earlier in the year. "Our most pleasant surprise has been Chris Schultz," said Cowboys offensive line coach Jim Myers. "Everyone would agree with that. He is the most improved player on our squad. He hadn't done anything his first two years because of the injuries. He has really blossomed." Schultz' 1984 season ended with an injury to his right knee in the Pittsburgh preseason game (8/16). Chris got into five games in 1983 on special teams. Despite playing only one season in college at offensive tackle, Schultz was drafted in the seventh round by Dallas because of his excellent size and quick feet. GAMES/STARTS: 1983 (5/0), 1984 (IR), 1985 (16/9). Total — 21/9.

COLLEGE: After earning three letters as a defensive tackle, Schultz was switched to offense as a senior, won the starting left tackle position and performed well for the Wildcats. He was the strongest member of the Arizona team with a 400-pound bench press.

PERSONAL: Born in Hamilton, Ontario, Canada, Christopher Schultz was raised in Burlington, where he lettered for four years in football and basketball at Aldershoot High School. Chris and his wife Michelle live in Flower Mound, Tex. He studied psychology at Arizona.

season for Scott, despite his having to fill in at cornerback when knee problems slowed Ron Fellows. Victor led the secondary in quarterback traps, with three, earned four game balls for his special teams work and returned an intercepted pass 26 yards for a touchdown against Washington. He also knocked down seven passes and forced a fumble. "Victor was our third cornerback last year," says Tom Landry, "but I think his natural position is free safety. With his speed and aggressive tackling ability, he could be a good one at that position. Scott isn't a bad cornerback, but if we want to move him to safety we have to find another backup for Fellows and Everson Walls." GAMES/STARTS: 1984 (16/0), 1985 (16/3). Total — 32/3.

COLLEGE: A two-time All-Big Eight selection and a 1983 second-team All-America, Scott set Colorado career records of 24 pass deflections and three interceptions returned for touchdowns in four years as a starting cornerback. He intercepted 10 passes and blocked four field goals and two extra point attempts in his career.

PERSONAL: Born in St. Louis, Mo., and raised in East St. Louis, Ill., Victor Ramone Scott starred in football, basketball and baseball at East St. Louis High School. Victor and wife Wanda live in Irving, Tex. with son Victor Ramone II (9/29/85). He majored in history at Colorado.

Rafael Septien ★ 1

KICKER • SOUTHWEST LOUISIANA • 10th YEAR
HT: 5-10 • WT: 179 • BORN: 12/12/53 • FA FOR '78

PRO: Plagued by a back injury from the off-season, Rafael Septien turned in a Dr. Jekyll/Mr. Hyde performance in 1985 that was worthy of an Academy Award. Against Washington in the season opener Septien made all three of his field goal attempts including a career-long matching 53-yarder on his first attempt and [illegible] a game ball from the coaches. Through the next three ga[illegible] three of 10 field goal attempts including a one-for-five peri[illegible] against Houston (9/29). The next week Septien provided the game winner in the fourth quarter with a 31-yard FG against the Giants (10/6). He finished the season strongly making 13 of his last 15 field goal attempts with the only misses coming from 47 and 50 yards. While warming up for the second half of the playoff game against the Rams (1/4/86) Rafael pulled a muscle in his kicking leg and missed the rest of the game. The club's all-time leading scorer, Septien has led the team in scoring every year since joining the team in 1978. With 872 career points, Septien stands in the 18th spot on the NFL's all-time scoring list and can move up to 12th in 1986. From 39 yards or less Septien has made an amazing 89% of his field goal attempts (124-140). Rafael ranks fourth on the all-time NFL field goal accuracy list (70.2%) and fifth on the all-time PAT list (96.7%). From the second game of his rookie year through the Chicago game last year Rafael scored in every game, 128 straight, the third longest streak in NFL history. Septien is at his best in pressure situations. In the fourth quarter with Dallas tied or behind by three or less points, he has made eight of 12 field goal attempts, including four game-winners. Rafael is a perfect three of three in overtime. Septien is the NFL record holder for field goal accuracy and consecutive field goals in the playoffs having kicked 18-of-21 post season field goal attempts (85.7), including 15 in a row from Super Bowl XIII to the 1982 NFC title game. Rafael, a 10th-round draft choice of the Saints in '77, was released in training camp and signed by the Rams. After being the NFL's top rookie kicker that year, he was released by the Rams after the final preseason game of 1978. The Cowboys signed him immediately as a free agent. GAMES/STARTS: 1977 (14/0-Rams), 1978 (16/0), 1979 (16/0), 1980 (16/0), 1981 (16/0), 1982 (9/0), 1983 (16/0), 1984 (16/0), 1985 (16/0). Total — 135/0.

COLLEGE: Septien received All-Southland Conference honors his final two seasons at Southwest Louisiana and kicked nine field goals of more than 50 yards, including a 50-yarder on his first attempt. His long was 57 vs. Lamar in '74.

PERSONAL: A native of Mexico City, Jose Rafael Septien Michel (rah-fay-EL sep-tee-EN) graduated from Collegio Vista Hermosa High School. Rafael's late father Carlos Septien was a member of two Mexican World Cup soccer teams. He runs a steel company, a glass company and a car rental company in Mexico. Rafael is president of Septien and Associates, a Dallas public relations firm, and has been working with McDonald's restaurants in a program benefitting Mexican-American youths. He has a son Rafael Septien, Jr. (10/8/84).

Don Smerek ★ 60

DEFENSIVE TACKLE • NEVADA-RENO • 6th YEAR
HT: 6-7 • WT: 265 • BORN: 12/20/57 • FA FOR '80

PRO: Don Smerek must feel like a modern-day Sisyphus. Everytime Smerek gets himself in position to contend for a starting spot the rock of injuries and bad luck rolls back on him. Last year Smerek was given a shot at the starting left tackle spot, but an injury to his right shoulder forced him to miss most of training camp and six regular season games. In 1984 he was to contend with Jim Jeffcoat for Harvey Martin's vacated starting spot, but the holdout of Randy White forced Smerek back to tackle and he never had a chance to compete at right end. Over the past three seasons Smerek has become a pass rushing specialist replacing John Dutton on passing downs. "Don Smerek is a good competitor," said coach Tom Landry. "He's tough and does a good job rushing the passer for us on third downs. He's an asset to our football team." After not playing in any preseason games in 1985 Smerek tried to play in the season opener against Washington (9/9), but his shoulder wasn't strong enough. He was placed on injured reserve for six games. In his first game back against Atlanta (10/27) Smerek recorded two sacks, including one on his first play. Despite playing in only 10 games in '85 Don tied his career-high of 17 tackles from 1983. After signing with Dallas as a free agent in 1980, Smerek fractured his ribs in training camp and was on injured reserve all season. He made the active roster as a reserve defensive lineman in 1981 but injured a knee in the second game, underwent surgery and spent the rest of the year on injured reserve. He battled his way back on to the roster in 1982 and proved a valuable asset down the stretch and in the playoffs filling in for Dutton, who was injured. In '83 Don replaced Dutton on passing downs and finished fourth on the club in sacks with six. With the 4-0 pass defense starting last year's San Francisco game (12/22), Don received his first NFL start. Smerek is one of the strongest Cowboys with a bench press of 435 pounds. GAMES/STARTS: 1981 (2/0), 1982 (7/0), 1983 (15/0), 1984 (16/0), 1985 (10/1). Total — 50/1.

COLLEGE: Smerek was an All-Big Sky choice at defensive end following his senior season at Nevada-Reno.

PERSONAL: Donald Frederick Smerek was born in Waterford, Mich., and raised in Henderson, Nev., outside Las Vegas. Don was a football and basketball star at Basic High in Henderson. He received his degree from Nevada-Reno in physical education. In the offseason he works for Craig Properties, a Dallas real estate firm.

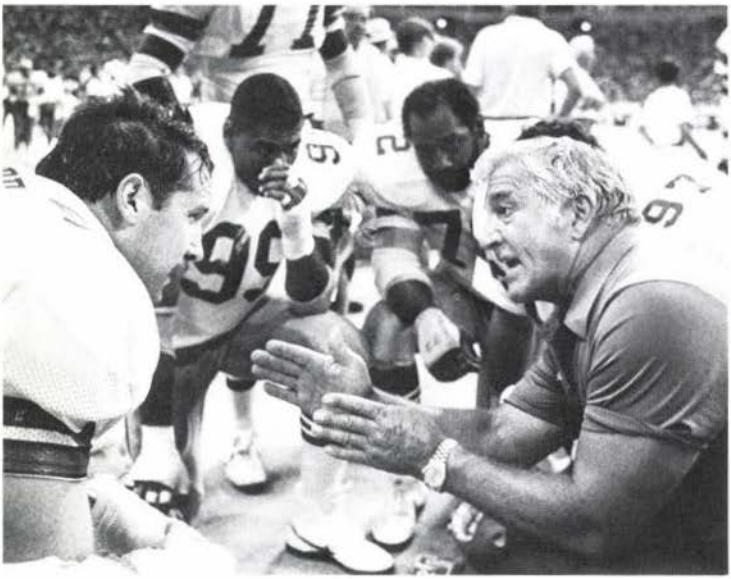
Broderick Thompson ★ 67

GUARD • KANSAS • 2nd YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 280 • BORN: 8/14/60 • FA FOR '85

PRO: When Broderick Thompson, a rookie free agent, was released by the Cowboys in the summer of '83, his mother told him Dallas would be calling him back in two years. On August 2, 1985, the Cowboys signed Broderick Thompson after he had been an '85 All-USFL performer with the Portland Breakers. Broderick, a defensive tackle in college, switched to offense as a pro and played in 11 games for the Cowboys in '85. "Thompson has ability," says Tom Landry. "For a big guy, he's got quick feet and a good base. He and Crawford Ker (a 293-pound second-year guard) could give us an awfully big offensive line if they develop as players." GAMES/STARTS: 1985 (11/0).

COLLEGE: Thompson was an honorable mention All-America at defensive tackle for Kansas in 1982. Before joining the Jayhawks, he played two years at Cerritos (Calif.) Junior College where he was named conference player of the year.

PERSONAL: A native of Cerritos, Calif., Broderick Thompson did not play football but was an All-CIF center at Gahr High School. He earned his degree in personnel administration from Kansas. Broderick's sister Necie was an All-America basketball player at UCLA.



Dennis Thurman ★ 32

SAFETY • SOUTHERN CAL • 9th YEAR
HT: 5-11 • WT: 179 • BORN: 4/14/56 • D-11 FOR '78

PRO: The term "situation specialist" might have been coined for Dennis Thurman, the NFC's leading active pass interceptor who has become as valuable a non-starter as can be imagined. Dennis started 57 straight games at free safety and cornerback from 1980 through 1983, then began a new career as on-field director of the Cowboys' five, six and seven-man defensive backfield alignments. In '85, the Cowboys' defensive backs were dubbed "Thurman's Thieves" by Danny White, as they combined for 33 interceptions — just one short of Chicago's league-leading total. Dennis contributed five interceptions of his own, second on the club only to NFL leader Everson Walls. Thurman's 21-yard scoring interception against Washington in the opening game was his fourth career interception for a TD, a club record. His 36 career steals place him behind only Mel Renfro (52) and Charlie Waters (41) on the Cowboys' list of all-time leaders. And, in his first eight seasons as a pro, Thurman never missed a game. "Dennis is a valuable man," says Tom Landry. "He handles our '4-0' defenses and directs traffic back there. And, he'll always make interceptions and big plays." GAMES/STARTS: 1978 (16/0), 1979 (16/1), 1980 (16/16), 1981 (16/16), 1982 (9/9), 1983 (16/16), 1984 (16/0), 1985 (16/3). Totals — 121/61.

in 1976. He had 13 career interceptions, seven fumble recoveries and was a two-time consensus All-America safety. Dennis also started five games at flanker during his freshman and sophomore years.

PERSONAL: Dennis Lee Thurman was a football quarterback, basketball and baseball star at Santa Monica High School in his native Los Angeles. He was recruited by major league baseball teams and college basketball programs before accepting a college football scholarship, and went on to obtain a journalism degree at USC. Dennis, his wife Elsie and their daughter Chelsea (12/3/83) live in the Dallas suburb of Farmers Branch.

Glen Titensor ★ 63

GUARD • BRIGHAM YOUNG • 6th YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 261 • BORN: 2/21/58 • D-3 FOR '81

PRO: In 1985, Titensor's first full year as a regular at left guard, Glen was one of three offensive lineman (along with center Tom Rafferty and right guard Kurt Petersen) to start every game. "We got pretty good production inside last year," said Tom Landry. "Titensor, Petersen and Rafferty all played well." Because of injuries, retirements and assorted lineup changes, the offensive line began a transition period in 1984 that continued through the '85 season and into 1986 training camp. Titensor's solid play last year, after four seasons as a backup center and guard, was one of the bright spots. Glen was a defensive lineman in college, moving over to the other side of the line as a Cowboys rookie in '81. He quickly shook off knee surgery in 1982, missing only a month of action, and has shown steady improvement ever since. GAMES/STARTS: 1981 (16/0), 1982 (3/0), 1983 (15/1), 1984 (15/12), 1985 (16/16). Totals — 65/29.

COLLEGE: After spending two years at UCLA backing up All-America defensive tackle Manu Tuiasosopo, Titensor transferred to BYU and became a two-time All-Western Athletic Conference choice at defensive end. He also was an AP honorable mention All-America in '79 and '80. Glen was named BYU defensive player of the week five times in '79 and led the team with 13 sacks in '80.

PERSONAL: Glen Weston Titensor (TIGHT-en-sir), a native of Westminster, Calif., starred in football and track at Bolsa Grande High School in Garden Grove, Calif. Glen's hobby is making custom furniture. He has participated in the American Heart Association Jumpathon program and donated his time to the Handicapped Ski Association. Glen and wife Sherry live in Carrollton, Tex. with son Scott (3/21/86).

Mark Tuinei ★ 71

CENTER • HAWAII • 4th YEAR
HT: 6-5 • WT: 270 • BORN: 3/31/60 • FA FOR '83

PRO: Responding to a need to develop offensive line depth, the Cowboys last year moved Mark Tuinei from defensive lineman to offensive center, hoping to duplicate the past success they have had in making such conversions. "This will be Mark's second year at center after playing defensive tackle," Tom Landry said in the offseason. "He has a lot of athletic ability. The second year usually determines what a player will do in pro ball, so this is a big year for Tuinei." Tuinei got playing time at center late in several games last year. He worked some in practice at tackle. One of the Cowboys' strongest players, Mark spent his first two seasons backing up the defensive line and contributing on special teams and short-yardage defenses.

COLLEGE: Tuinei played his first two collegiate seasons at UCLA. He started at defensive tackle his sophomore year, finishing fifth in tackles. He then transferred to Hawaii. He suffered through an injury-plagued senior year, playing in seven games, including five starts.

PERSONAL: Mark Pulemau Tuinei (TOO-ee-nay) was born in Oceanside, Calif., and raised in Honolulu where he was an outstanding athlete at Punahou High School. Mark was Hawaii prep lineman of the year as a senior, a state shotput champion and an all-star basketball player. Mark's brother Tom was an All-WAC defensive tackle at Hawaii who played for the Detroit Lions in 1980 and now plays with Edmonton of the CFL. Mark and wife Ponolani live in Dallas.

NFL MAN OF THE YEAR AWARD

The NFL Man of the Year program honors NFL players who have contributed as outstanding citizens of their communities as well as to their teams on the field. The program began in 1970, was discontinued from 1977-79 and was reactivated in 1980. Dallas Cowboys NFL Man of the Year winners have been:

1985 - Bill Bates
1984 - Doug Cosbie
1983 - Danny White
1982 - Billy Joe DuPree
1981 - D. D. Lewis
1980 - Drew Pearson
1976 - Roger Staubach
1975 - Roger Staubach
1973 - Calvin Hill

Everson Walls ★ 24

CORNERBACK • GRAMBLING • 6th YEAR
HT: 6-1 • WT: 194 • BORN: 12/28/59 • FA FOR '81

PRO: The improbable journey of Everson Walls reached new heights in 1985 when he became the first player in NFL history to lead the league in interceptions three times. The former rookie free agent from Grambling, who was overlooked in the 1981 draft, has been turning these kinds of tricks all his career. He has been voted to the Pro Bowl four of his five seasons, missing only in '84. He owns the Pro Bowl career record of four interceptions, two in each of his first two appearances. Walls was an All-Rookie choice in '81, a consensus All-Pro in '82, an Associated Press All-Pro in '83, a UPI All-NFC selection in '84 and a Pro Football Writers Association All-Pro in '85. The NFL Alumni Association named Everson the '82 NFL defensive back of the year. In '85 he received the Cappelletti Award, given annually by the Quarterback Club of New England to a late-round draft choice or free agent who has distinguished himself in the NFL. Walls is the only player ever to lead the league in interceptions in each of his first two seasons and one of just two players to lead the NFL two years in a row, Philadelphia's Bill Bradley being the first in 1971-72. Walls already is fourth on the Cowboys' career interception list, tied with Cornell Green with 34. He has led the team in passes defensed five straight years and also is an outstanding tackler. Since becoming a defensive back as a high school senior in Dallas, Walls has intercepted 69 passes in 10 seasons. "Cubby," as he's known, became the Cowboys' starting left cornerback in the fifth game of the '81 season. He finished with a team-record and league-leading 11 interceptions, breaking Mel Renfro's club mark and becoming the first rookie since Detroit's Lem Barney in 1967 to lead the NFL. He stole two more passes and recovered a fumble in the NFC Championship Game (1/10/82). He also became only the sixth free agent rookie to be voted to the Pro Bowl. In '84 Everson became the youngest player voted by the fans to the Cowboys' 25th anniversary all-time team. He has not missed a game in his career. GAMES/STARTS: 1981 (16/14), 1982 (9/9), 1983 (16/16), 1984 (16/16), 1985 (16/16). Total — 73/71.

COLLEGE: Walls led the nation in 1980 with a Grambling-record 11 interceptions for 140 yards in 11 games. He was named first-team All-Southwestern Conference his senior year. In his junior year he picked off four passes for 91 yards and a touchdown.

PERSONAL: Everson Collins "Cubby" Walls of Dallas was a football, basketball and track star at Richardson Berkner High School. He grew up within two miles of the Cowboys' old practice facility. He earned a degree in accounting from Grambling. Everson supports the Big Brothers of Arlington, Texas, the American Heart Association and the Foster Parents program. He, wife Shreill and daughter Charis (8/16/84) live in Dallas.

Danny White ★ 11

QUARTERBACK • ARIZONA STATE • 11th YEAR
HT: 6-3 • WT: 196 • BORN: 2/9/52 • D-3A FOR '74

PRO: In 1985 Danny White left no doubt that he still has the courage and talent to lead the Cowboys to championships. Through injuries that forced him to miss two preseason games, two regular season games and parts of three other games, White returned to his form of the early '80s, leading Dallas to the NFC Eastern Division title. "Danny had a lot of injuries last year and showed great courage in playing through them," said coach Tom Landry. "When you look at what he did the last few weeks of the season, you really have to open your eyes. That was the Danny White of old that we saw out there." In his last four games of '85 (he missed the San Francisco game due to injury) Danny led the Cowboys to three victories over NFC East teams to key the Cowboys' division championship. In those games he completed 63% of his passes, threw for 10 touchdowns and was intercepted only three times. An offensive captain in 1985, Danny finished the year fourth in NFC passing with an 80.6 rating and led a Cowboys offense that finished first in the NFC in passing yards. White's injuries in 1985 included a bruised left shoulder, a sprained right hand, bruised ribs, sprained neck and a concussion. The Cowboys are 38-8 (.826) at Texas Stadium and 60-27 (.690) overall with White in the starting lineup. In 1986 White has a chance to break several of Roger Staubach's club passing records. Danny enters 1986 with career totals of 2,393 attempts, 1,422 completions and 130 touchdowns. Staubach holds all three records, with 2,958 attempts, 1,685 completions and 153 touchdowns. With 2,089 passing yards this season Danny can become only the second Cowboys player to reach the 20,000-yard plateau. Staubach passed for 22,700 yards during his 11 years. After being drafted in the third round by Dallas in 1974 (as part of a trade with Houston that also produced Ed Jones for Tody Smith and Billy Parks), White signed with Memphis of the now-defunct World Football League and spent two seasons there before joining the Cowboys in 1976. Danny punted for the Cowboys from 1976-84 and is a risk-taking type who has run for first downs 15 times in 19 attempts from punt formation. GAMES/STARTS: 1976 (14/0), 1977 (14/0), 1978 (16/1), 1979 (16/0), 1980 (16/16), 1981 (16/15), 1982 (9/9), 1983 (16/16), 1984 (14/6), 1985 (14/14). Total — 145/77.

COLLEGE: White finished his career as the NCAA's all-time leading passer, setting seven NCAA passing records. His passing and running placed him second in the nation in total offense in 1973. Danny played the infield for ASU's baseball team and was drafted by four major league teams. Both Danny and his father, Wilford "Wizzer" White, a former ASU All-America halfback who played for the Chicago Bears in 1951 and '52, are in the Arizona State Sports Hall of Fame. NOTE: Danny White's father is NOT U.S. Supreme Court Justice Byron "Whizzer" White.

PERSONAL: Wilford Daniel White is a native of Mesa, Ariz., and graduated from Westwood High in that Phoenix suburb. Danny is chairman of the annual Danny White/Boy Scouts of America golf tourney, and does public service work in the Dallas area for numerous worthwhile causes. He was named 1982 Father of the Year and the 1983 Cowboys Man of the Year. Danny, wife Jo Lynn and the four children — Ryan (4/26/73), Geoffrey (1/4/76), Heather (9/3/78) and Reed (7/29/83) — live in Fairview, Texas, near Dallas.

Randy White ★ 54

DEFENSIVE TACKLE • MARYLAND • 12th YEAR
HT: 6-4 • WT: 272 • BORN: 1/15/53 • D-1A FOR '75

PRO: Long-distance running is not one of Randy White's favorite things. Few 33-year-olds who weigh 270 pounds spend their free time participating in marathons. Yet, on Memorial Day, 1986, there was White, a solitary sweaty figure chugging around and around the half-mile track at Cowboys Ranch. It was his way of "celebrating" the holiday. And, it probably illustrated as well as anything the determination that keeps White at the very top of his profession entering his 12th year in the National Football League. "Randy is the premier defensive tackle in the business," says Tom Landry. "Because of his intensity and competitiveness, he should remain at a high level — a Pro Bowl level — for several more years." In 1985, White was named All-Pro for the eighth straight year, a Cowboys record. He played in the Pro Bowl for the ninth straight year, and another appearance there after the '86 season would tie him with Mel Renfro for the club record in that category. Despite being double- or triple-teamed on 75 per cent or more of opponents' pass plays, Randy registered 10½ quarterback sacks in 1986 to give him an even 100 for his career. He led all Cowboys linemen by a wide margin in tackles, knocked down five passes and forced a fumble. Cowboys defensive coordinator Ernie Stautner, a Hall of Famer whom Landry ranks with White as the two most competitive players he's ever seen, says Randy should play up to those lofty standards for the foreseeable future. "He's at the peak of his performance," says Stautner of White. "Randy's intensity is still at the high level it was when he came to us in '75." Landry probably put it best when he said, "When Randy White lines up on you, he doesn't care whether you're All-Pro or whether you're a rookie. You're going to get the same treatment. That makes him unique in this game." Ask White about all those accolades and he'll get a twinkle in his eye, smile, shrug and head outside for some more weightlifting and running. There's another season ahead. GAMES/STARTS: 1975 (14/1), 1976 (14/0), 1977 (14/14), 1978 (16/16), 1979 (15/14), 1980 (16/16), 1981 (16/16), 1982 (9/9), 1983 (16/16), 1984 (16/16), 1985 (16/16). TOTAL: 162/134.

COLLEGE: A consensus All-America defensive end for the Terps in 1974, White won both the Outland Trophy and the Vince Lombardi Award as college football's top lineman that year. He was the second player selected in the 1975 draft with a choice obtained by the Cowboys from the New York Giants for quarterback Craig Morton. Atlanta selected quarterback Steve Bartkowski before the Cowboys tock White.

PERSONAL: Randy Lee White was a football, basketball and baseball star at Thomas McKean High School in his hometown of Wilmington, Del. He is a fanatical bass fisherman. Randy, wife Vicci and daughter Jordan Leigh (5/6/79) live in Dallas. Randy received the 1980 Field Scovell Award for athletic excellence from the Dallas All-Sports Association. He supports the Association of Blind Athletes, the United Way, the American Heart Association and the Dallas County Foster Parents Association. He also has done work with the Make-A-Wish Foundation of Dallas.

SHERRARD

CLACK

THE ROOKIES

(1986 Draftees)

MIKE SHERRARD • Wide Receiver • UCLA

Ht. 6-2 • Wt: 185 • Born: 6/21/63 • D-1

Everything about Mike Sherrard points to him becoming a top wide receiver in the National Football League: size (6-2, 185), speed (4.4 range, rated as fastest WR in draft), work habits (stayed at UCLA during summers to work with QBs), intelligence (Pac-10 All-Academic) and the ability to make the tough catch over the middle.

"I feel extremely good about this pick," Coach Tom Landry said. "We think Sherrard should be able to start for us this year. He has such great speed and he carries it on a 6-2 frame. You've got everything you need."

The first wide receiver taken in the draft, Sherrard also became the first wide receiver taken in the first round by Dallas since Dennis Homan in 1968.

All Sherrard did at UCLA was go from a walk-on to the Bruins' all-time leading receiver. He also holds the school record for catches in a season with 48 his sophomore year.

Sherrard was on his way to his best season in 1985 when he fractured his clavicle late in the first half of the fifth game against Arizona State. Ironically, on the catch he was injured he set a UCLA record for career receiving yardage. Two weeks earlier he caught his 109th pass to become UCLA's all-time leading receiver. Mike returned for the last game of the season against USC and also played in the Rose Bowl, catching four passes, including a touchdown in UCLA's 45-28 victory over Iowa. He finished his UCLA career with 124 catches for 1,937 yards, nine touchdowns with a long gain of 62 yards.

Prior to trying out with the Bruins as a walk-on in 1981, Sherrard worked out with former UCLA starters and current NFL players Dokie Williams and Jo Jo Townsell while he was going to summer school. Sherrard broke a finger at the start of fall practices and was red-shirted for the year.

Things didn't get much better as he came down with mononucleosis when he reported for spring practice in 1982. He spent the season backing up Williams and Townsell, catching only two passes.

The UCLA coaches were rewarded for their faith in Sherrard in 1983, his first as a starter. Along with setting a school record for catches in a season he became the only player in UCLA history to have two games of more than 135 yards receiving (136 against Washington and a career-high 140 against Arizona State). He was named second-team All-America and All-Pac 10 in 1983.

With 43 catches in 1984, Sherrard became the first Bruin ever to have two seasons with more than 40 catches. He also put together a career-high 729 receiving yards.

An offensive captain in 1985, Sherrard still caught 31 passes despite his injury and earned a spot in the Hula Bowl. He tied his career-high twice in 1985 with seven catches against Tennessee (120 yards) and against Washington (94 yards). With his catches in the Rose Bowl he also continued his streak of catching a pass in each of his last 29 games.

Sherrard comes by his speed naturally. His mother Cherrie ran the 100-meter hurdles in the 1964 Olympics. One of her Olympic teammates was former Cowboys WR Bob Hayes. A history major, Sherrard received his degree in March.

Michael Watson Sherrard is a native of Chico, Calif., where he lettered in basketball, baseball, track and football at Chico High School.

DARRYL CLACK • Running Back • Arizona State

Ht: 5-10 • Wt. 207 • Born: 10/29/63 • D-2

Nineteen-eighty-five was to be the glimmering finish to a stellar college career for Darryl Clack. A starter since his freshman year, the two-time All-Pac 10 selection was coming off a 1984 season in which he rushed for 1,052 yards and caught 32 passes for 385 yards. Then, after suffering a fractured right fibula in the second game of the 1985 season, Clack was forced to sit out the last seven regular-season games. He did play in the Holiday Bowl, gaining 36 yards on nine carries.

"We think Darryl Clack can really be an outstanding back," said Coach Tom Landry. "He is not out there to gain three or four yards. He's a 4.6-type runner who can score from any place on the field."

Projected as a backup to Tony Dorsett this year, Clack may see plenty of action in passing situations. He caught 68 passes for 803 yards, including two catches of 65 yards or more, in his career at ASU. Clack also had two runs from scrimmage of 75 yards or more.

The Sun Devils' leading rusher his first three seasons, Clack became the first ASU freshman to lead the team in rushing since 1955. As a sophomore in 1983 he led the Pac 10 in rushing with 932 yards.

He also became the first player in Arizona State history to gain over 100 yards rushing and receiving in the same game (116 rushing and 134 receiving vs. USC). Clack had his best day rushing as a sophomore against Wichita State gaining 221 yards on 22 carries.

In 1984 Clack became the only player to rush for over 1,000 yards under Darryl Rogers, who now is with the Detroit Lions in his 20th year as a head coach. Clack had five 100-yard rushing days, including four games of 160 yards or more. The Sun Devils' MVP, he had a career-high eight catches against UCLA.

Fifth on ASU's all-time rushing list, Clack finished his career with 2,671 yards, a 5.2 average per carry and 20 TDs. He also had 11 100-yard games and Arizona State was 10-1 in those games.

A native of San Antonio, Texas, Clack moved to Colorado while in high school. An eight-time Colorado dash champion, Clack was all-state in football and lettered in basketball at Widefield High School in Security, Colo. A member of the Sun Devils' track team for three years, Clack majored in physical education at Arizona State.

MARK WALEN • Defensive Tackle • UCLA

Ht: 6-5 • Wt: 265 • Born: 3/10/63 • D-3

Throughout his career at UCLA, Mark Walen was honored as one of the top defensive lineman in the country. He was the best pass rusher in the Pac 10 last year, leading the Bruins with nine sacks. He anchored the UCLA defensive line that boasted one of the top defenses against the rush in 1985.

"Defensive line coach Ernie Stautner worked him out and was very impressed," said Player Personnel Director Gil Brandt. "He has a lot of natural ability to become a good pass rusher."

The Pac-10 coaches selected Walen as the conference's defensive player of the year in 1985. He was also named second-team All-America and All-West Coast by UPI.

The only senior starter on the Bruins' defensive line, Walen was also recognized for his leadership abilities. He was named the best leader on the UCLA team and served as one of the defensive captains.

A three-year starter, Walen finished his UCLA career with 20 sacks and 185 tackles. He had a team-high nine tackles in UCLA's 45-28 Rose Bowl victory over Iowa. He also had 14 tackles and one fumble recovery against Tennessee and eight tackles and three sacks against Stanford.

Walen started two games his freshman year in 1982, against Oregon and USC. He tore ligaments in his left knee in the third game of 1983, forcing him to miss the rest of the regular season, but he returned to play in the Rose Bowl that year.

Walen broke his right ankle at Cowboys rookie orientation in May. In a freak accident the injury occurred while Walen was completing the 1½-mile run. He was expected to return to practices in late July.

A native of Burlingame, Calif., Mark Hartley Walen lettered in soccer and basketball and was all-county in football at Burlingame High School. He majored in history at UCLA.

MAX ZENDEJAS • Placekicker • Arizona

Ht: 5-11 • Wt: 184 • Born: 9/2/63 • D-4

Max Zendejas finished his career at Arizona third on the NCAA's

all-time field goal list with 77 and fourth in scoring with 353 points. He also broke every University of Arizona kicking record, but the most impressive Zendejas statistic is that his field goal percentage from 50 yards or more was 61% (14-of-23).

With the game on the line at Arizona, Zendejas made 5-of-6 field goals, including a 48-yarder to beat Notre Dame in South Bend his freshman year in 1982. He tied an NCAA record by kicking a field goal in 18 straight games from 1982-84. In his four years at Arizona he missed only two extra points, including a streak of 68 straight from 1982-84. He made 77-of-104 (74%) field goal attempts in his career.

Arizona's most valuable player in 1985, Zendejas led the Pac 10 with 22 field goals and was second in the conference with 89 points. He was an honorable mention All-America selection by AP, UPI and NEA and a third-team All-America pick by Football News. He was named All-Pac 10 second team and played in the East-West Shrine Game.

Taking Zendejas in the fourth round is the highest Dallas has ever drafted a placekicker. Zendejas was the first player taken from Arizona in the draft. Zendejas' Pac 10 rival John Lee of UCLA was drafted in the second round by the St. Louis Cardinals and could be his NFC East rival in 1986.

Max is a member of the kicking Zendejas family. Max's brother Joaquin kicked for the New England Patriots in 1983, his brother Luis holds the NCAA scoring record and kicks for the Arizona Outlaws of the USFL, his cousin Tony kicks for the Houston Oilers, his cousin Martin just finished his senior year after kicking for Nevada-Reno, his brother Allan is a senior at Don Antonio Lugo High School in Chino, Calif., and made a 55-yard field goal last fall, and his brother Alex is a junior at Don Antonio Lugo and will take Allan's place next fall.

Maximmillian Javier Zendejas was born in Mexico and moved to Chino, Calif., in 1972. He did not kick for Don Antonio Lugo High School until his senior year because he had to wait for his older brother Luis to graduate. Zendejas made four field goals of over 50 yards as a senior and also lettered in soccer. His father was a semi-pro soccer player in Mexico. A political science major at Arizona, Zendejas wants to be an interpreter after finishing his football career.

THORNTON CHANDLER • Tight End • Alabama

Ht: 6-5 • Wt: 238 • Born: 11/27/63 • D-6A

Noted for his blocking ability, Thornton Chandler has the good hands and long arms to become an NFL tight end. He was third on the 1985 Alabama team with 16 receptions for 244 yards. Alabama head coach Ray Perkins considered Chandler one of his most improved players.

The fifth tight end taken in the draft, Chandler averaged 15.8 yards per reception at Alabama, catching 32 passes for 504 yards in three years. He caught a career-long 52-yarder as a sophomore against Mississippi in 1983.

Chandler played at Florida A&M as a freshman in 1981 before transferring to Alabama. His dad, Tommy Chandler, played defensive tackle at Florida A&M at the same time former Cowboys WR Bob Hayes was there. Hayes and Tommy Chandler also attended Matthew Gilbert High School in Jacksonville, Fla.

An All-America at Raines High School in Jacksonville, Fla., Chandler caught 10 passes for 170 yards and two touchdowns against Lake City (Fla.) High School. He majored in physical education at Alabama.

STAN GELBAUGH • Quarterback • Maryland

Ht: 6-3 • Wt: 207 • Born: 12/4/62 • D-6B

Stan Gelbaugh spent his first two-and-a-half years at Maryland punting and backing up future NFL quarterbacks Boomer Esiason (Cincinnati) and Frank Reich (Buffalo). He made his first start midway through the 1984 season at Penn State and before the largest crowd to ever watch Maryland play, Gelbaugh set a school record for pass attempts in a game with 48.

In his first full season as a starter in 1985 Gelbaugh passed for 2,475 yards, breaking Esiason's single-season record. He also broke Esiason's record for passing yardage in a game when he threw for 361 yards against Clemson. On the day he was 23-of-35 (65.7%) with three TDs.

Gelbaugh led the ACC in total offense with 216.8 yards-per-game and finished second in passing efficiency. He closed out his Maryland career as the offensive player of the game in the Cherry Bowl and was quarterback and punter in the Hula Bowl.

A red-shirt in 1983, he worked as a wide receiver in spring of 1984 before switching back to quarterback in the fall. Maryland was 13-4 in games that Gelbaugh started.

Along with his chores as quarterback and punter, Gelbaugh also did the placekicking at Cumberland Valley High School in Carlisle, Penn. He lettered in football, basketball and track. Gelbaugh received his degree in marketing from Maryland in December.

LLOYD YANCEY • Guard • Temple

Ht: 6-4 • Wt: 275 • Born: 12/8/62 • D-6C

The Cowboys couldn't draft All-America guard John Rienstra from Temple so they drafted Rienstra's linemate of three years, Lloyd Yancey. An honorable mention All-East selection in 1985, Yancey started at right tackle on the opposite side of the line from Rienstra, who was drafted with the ninth pick in the first round by Pittsburgh.

A big, tough player that you'd expect from the Philadelphia school, Yancey played defense his freshman year, recording a sack in the season opener in 1981. In 1983 Yancey started three games at defensive tackle and was moved to offensive tackle before suffering a season-ending knee injury.

Yancey started every game in 1984 despite a shoulder injury. Again in 1985 he started every game and played in the Blue-Gray game. He follows in the footsteps of Cowboys' starting tackle Jim Cooper, who is a native of Philadelphia, played at Temple and was a sixth-round draft choice in 1977.

At Chestnut Hill Academy in Philadelphia, Yancey lettered in basketball, track and was the most valuable player of the football team his senior year. He majored in management at Temple.

JOHNNY HOLLOWAY • Cornerback • Kansas

Ht: 5-11 • Wt: 181 • Born: 11/8/63 • D-7

The strongest and fastest wide receiver on the University of Kansas team, Johnny Holloway is looking to make the transition from college wide receiver to NFL cornerback. He was one of the three top defensive backs in Texas as a senior at Lamar High School in Houston.

In his only full season as a starting wide receiver for the Jayhawks, Holloway caught 32 passes for 358 yards, good for fourth in Big Eight receiving. Holloway was averaging 18.1 yards per catch in 1984, but an ankle injury in the third game ended his season. Before the injury Holloway caught six passes for 141 yards including a 70-yard touchdown against Florida State.

Holloway originally signed with Northwestern out of high school in 1982. He transferred to Butler Junior College in Kansas a year later and led the nation in yards per catch with a 32.0 average in 1983.

A native of Houston, Holloway was the Texas prep long jump champion his junior year at Lamar with a 24-8 leap. A liberal arts major, Holloway decided to forego his final year of eligibility at Kansas.

TOPPER CLEMONS • Running Back • Wake Forest

Ht: 5-11 • Wt: 205 • Born: 9/16/63 • D-8

Topper Clemons led all fullbacks in the ACC in rushing in 1985 with 922 yards on 164 carries. Third on Wake Forest's all-time rushing list, Clemons led the Demon Deacons in rushing, total offense and scoring in 1985.

After becoming a starter in 1984, Clemons averaged 5.5 yards per carry. His 5.6 average in 1985 was second only to Virginia's Barry Word who was drafted in the third round by New Orleans. Wake Forest's strongest back last year, Topper had six career 100-yard games including three in 1985. His best game came against Richmond in 1984 when he gained 182 yards.

In 1985 Clemons rushed for 922 yards on 164 carries and two touchdowns. He caught 21 passes for 113 yards and five touchdowns. The first Demon Deacon selected in the 1985 draft, Clemons returned kickoffs before moving into the starting lineup. He averaged 20.0 yards per return with a long of 76 yards.

Clemons played at Wake Forest with Gary Baldinger, brother of Cowboys guard Brian Baldinger.

Orman "Topper" Clemons received his nickname from his mother when he was a baby. At Cinnaminson (N.J.) High School Clemons finished second in the state meet in both the 100 and 200 meter dashes and did not lose a regular season wrestling match. He also was an All-South Jersey football selection. An education major at Wake Forest, Clemons prepped one year at Fork Union Academy where he averaged 100 yards rushing per game.

JOHN IONATA • Guard • Florida State

Ht: 6-2 • Wt: 280 • Born: 2/26/63 • D-9

The one word to describe John Ionata's college career is consistency. A four-year letterman, Ionata started three of those years at tackle and was named All-South Independent each of his years as a starter. He also received high grades from the Seminole coaches every week.

"I think John Ionata's good enough for the pros," said Florida State head coach Bobby Bowden. "He's intelligent, he's tough and he can move those feet. He graded out at 94 percent against Auburn. That's almost unheard of around here."

Ionata also is a good student. He made the Dean's List (3.5 or better G.P.A.) while maintaining an overall grade point average of 3.2 as a finance major.

A native of Dunedin, Fla., Ionata led Dunedin High School to two straight undefeated football seasons. He was an all-state selection at defensive lineman his senior year. Ionata was a high school teammate of Cowboys' guard Crawford Ker. From a family of eight children, Ionata has a younger brother, Joey, who is a 263-pound freshman tackle at Florida State. When Ionata finishes his football career he plans to join his brother Vince at Ionata Enterprises, an advertising agency.

BRYAN CHESTER • Guard • Texas

Ht: 6-4 • Wt: 260 • Born: 2/2/63 • D-10

Bryan Chester earned honorable mention All-America honors and All-Southwest Conference second-team honors in 1985. The third guard drafted by the Cowboys in 1986, Chester had knee surgery following the 1984 season, but returned to start all 11 games in 1985.

A three-year letterman, Chester was a backup left guard in 1982. After red-shirting the 1983 season, he moved into the starting right guard spot in 1984. One of the strongest players on the Longhorn squad, Chester gained 35 pounds through weightlifting since his freshman year.

Chester was a two-time all-district selection at Westbury High School in Houston where he played both center and tight end. He majored in business at Texas.

GARTH JAX • Linebacker • Florida State

Ht: 6-2 • Wt: 225 • Born: 9/16/63 • D-11

Despite a broken right thumb and a bruised left shoulder, Garth Jax led Florida State with six sacks and finished fifth on the Seminoles with 63 tackles. From his outside linebacker position Jax recorded a team-high 13 tackles in the 1985 season opener against Tulane.

Throughout his career, Jax was plagued with injuries. In 1984 he severely injured his kidney and spleen to the extent that some doctors doubted whether he would play football again. The injury came against South Carolina after Jax had recorded 13 tackles. It forced him to miss the remaining three games.

Jax started for the first time in a Gator Bowl victory over West Virginia following his freshman season, but was limited to a part-time role as a sophomore in 1983 because of an illness.

A native of Houston, Garth led his Jesuit High School team to the 4-A state title three of his four years and was named all-state his senior season. His stepdad, Phil Abriaira, holds the Florida State record for average yards per punt return in a season (20.1).

CHRIS DULIBAN • Linebacker • Texas

Ht: 6-2 • Wt: 216 • Born: 1/9/63 • D-12A

Chris Duliban was the fastest linebacker on the 1985 University of Texas team. In his first season as starting outside linebacker, Duliban ranked second on the team in sacks with 10 and third on the team in tackles with 98. He also had seven passes defensed and an interception last year.

In his first three years at Texas, Duliban used his outstanding speed to excel on special teams. In 1983 he led the Longhorns in tackles on punts and kickoffs. He also recorded two blocked kicks in 1983 and another in 1984.

At Spring Woods High School in Houston, Duliban was an all-district running back as a senior and an all-district linebacker as a junior. A native of Champaign, Ill., Duliban majored in advertising at Texas.

TONY FLACK • Defensive Back • Georgia

Ht: 6-1 • Wt: 184 • Born: 8/31/64 • D-12B

A four-year starter, Tony Flack is the only freshman to start a season opener for Georgia head coach Vince Dooley and that first start in 1982 came before a Monday night national television audience against Clemson, the defending national champion.

After starting at cornerback his first three years, Flack started some games at safety in 1985. He injured his knee in the season opener against Alabama and missed two games. Against Auburn last year Flack recorded 20 tackles. A starter in 41 career games for the Bulldogs, Flack was named All-SEC by UPI and played in the Hula Bowl last season.

Anthony Thomas Flack had an incredible high school career at Ben L. Smith in Greensboro, N.C. An All-America and Academic All-America selection, Flack caught 98 passes, intercepted 29 passes, averaged 21 yards per punt return and 34 yards per kickoff return. He majored in distributive education at Georgia.

Other Cowboys With Pro Experience

CHARLES BENNETT, a 6-4, 260-pound defensive end from Southwestern Louisiana, was drafted in the seventh round by Chicago in 1985 and released in preseason. Bennett led the Cajuns with 10 tackles for losses, led the defensive line with 51 tackles and was the team co-leader in sacks with six and interceptions with two, including one returned 64 yards for a TD against Alabama. A native of Alligator, MS (2/9/63) Bennett was the MVP in basketball, track and football at Coahoma County High School in Clarksdale, MS. Nicknamed "Gator" after his hometown, Charles majored in physical education at SW Louisiana.

NEAL DELLOCONO, the Cowboys 11th-round draft pick in 1985, rejoins the club after he was released last season. A 6-1, 219-pound linebacker from UCLA, Dellocono was placed on injured reserve on 8/20 with an ankle injury from the San Diego preseason game (8/17). He remained on IR until he was released later in the season. A three-year starter at outside linebacker for the Bruins, Neal led the team in sacks with nine earning him third-team All-America honors his senior year. The Baton Rouge, La. native (6/1/63) was an All-America at Catholic High School where he rushed for 215 yards and four TDs in one game. Dellocono also lettered in track, baseball and basketball in high school. He majored in kinesiology at UCLA.

CORNELL GOWDY, a 6-0, 192-pound cornerback from Morgan State, signed as a free agent with the Pittsburgh Steelers in '85 but was released in training camp. A defensive captain for the Golden Bears, Gowdy led the team in tackles his junior year. The Seat Pleasant, Md. native (10/2/63) attended Central High School. Gowdy majored in business administration at Morgan State.

TOMMY HAYNES, who played with Portland of the USFL in 1985, joined the Cowboys in the middle of training camp last year and was released after the second preseason game. The 6-0, 190-pound cornerback from USC started six games for Portland. A two-year starter at USC, Haynes earned honorable mention All-America and All-Pac 10 honors his senior year. He capped off his college career with a two-interception performance helping the Trojans to a 20-17 victory over Ohio State in the 1985 Rose Bowl. Haynes attended Mt. San Antonio College for two years before transferring to USC. A native of Covina, Calif. (2/6/63), Haynes played defensive back and wide receiver at Covina High School earning All-San Gabriel Valley honors. He also lettered in baseball and basketball.

BOB OTTO, the ninth-round draft choice of Seattle in 1985, joined the Cowboys in '86 after he was released on the final cut by the Seahawks last year. A four-year letterman and two-year starter at defensive end for Idaho State, the 6-6, 251-pound Otto was a second-team All-Big Sky pick as a senior. He entered Idaho State as a 200-pound tight end. A native of Sacramento, Calif. (12/6/62) Otto attended Foothill High School.

JOEL PATTEN, who played two years in the NFL and three years in the USFL, joined the Cowboys for the 1986 season. Signed as a free agent tackle from Duke by Cleveland in 1980, Patten, 6-6 and 240, played in seven games for the Browns. After spending the entire '81 season on injured reserve with a knee injury, Patten was released in training camp before the 1982 season. He was signed by the Washington Federals of the USFL in 1983 and went to the Orlando Renegades in 1984 when the two teams merged. A three-year letterman at Duke, Patten co-captained the Blue Devils his senior year. A native of Augsburg, Germany (2/7/58) where his dad was an Army colonel, Patten was an all-district football and basketball player at Robinson High School in Fairfax, Va. He majored in history/education at Duke.

KURT PLOEGER, the Cowboys sixth-round draft pick in 1985, spent the season on injured reserve after suffering a thigh bruise in a training camp scrimmage. A two-time small college All-America, Ploeger led Gustavus Adolphus (St. Peter, Minn.) in tackles his senior year with 113. He also had 11 sacks and blocked four passes. A hurdler on the Gustavus Adolphus track team until he decided to concentrate on football, the 6-5, 259-pound Ploeger majored in business there. The LaSuer, Minn. native (5/14/62) attended LaSuer High School.

KELLY POTTER, a 5-11, 165-pound placekicker from Middle Tennessee State, signed as a free agent with Buffalo last year but was released during training camp. An All-America his senior year, Potter left Middle Tennessee holding every school kicking record. He finished his college career with 261 career points (52 of 78 FGs, 105 of 109 PATs). A three-time All-Ohio Valley Conference pick, Potter kicked a 57-yard field goal as a sophomore setting a NCAA division I-AA record, which has since been broken. A native of Franklin, Tenn. (5/22/62) Potter attended Father Ryan High School.

SCOTT STRASBURGER, the Cowboys' ninth round draft pick in 1985, was released on the final cut last year. The 6-1, 220-pound linebacker was a consensus All-Big Eight defensive end at Nebarska in 1984. He also was a two-time Academic All-America and won a National Football Hall of Fame scholarship for post-graduate studies in medicine. A native of Holdrege, Neb., Scott attended Holdrege High School. He turned down an academic scholarship to Dartmouth College in order to walk on at Nebraska.

CHRIS WALTMAN, who was signed as a free agent tight end from Oregon State in 1985, spent the entire season on injured reserve with a knee injury. Prior to last year's training camp, the 6-7, 255-pounder hadn't played football since his junior year in high school. A discus thrower in college, Waltman finished eighth in the NCAA Championships in 1984. The Elgin, Minn. native (11/25/61), attended Elgin High School.

Goals For 1986

The Cowboys winning their 21st league opener in the past 22 seasons. Dallas holds the NFL record of 17 straight opening-game victories from 1965-81. The Cowboys are the best opening-day team in NFL history with a 21-4-1 (.827) record.

The Cowboys returning to the playoffs for the 11th time in the past 12 years and the 19th time in the past 21 years. Dallas holds the NFL record of nine consecutive playoff appearances from 1975-83.

The Cowboys improving their all-time Texas Stadium record of 97-24 (.802), including playoff games, from 1971-85. Dallas has sold out 21 straight games at Texas Stadium and 65 of the past 67 games.

The Cowboys improving their NFC-best 38-15 (.717) record against the AFC in games against AFC West foes Denver, San Diego, Seattle and the L.A. Raiders.

The Cowboys extending their NFL record of consecutive winning seasons to 21. The team's 20 straight winning seasons is the longest active streak in pro team sports and the third longest ever behind the New York Yankees' 39 straight winning seasons from 1926-64 and the Montreal Canadiens' 32 in a row from 1951-52 to 1982-83.

Tom Landry improving his career record of 253-148-6 including playoffs. Only George Halas (325 victories) and Miami's Don Shula (255) have more NFL victories than Landry.

Tony Dorsett moving up the NFL's all-time rushing list. With 10,832 yards, Dorsett is sixth. He needs 405 yards to pass No. 5 O. J. Simpson. John Riggins enters the 1986 season in fourth position with 11,352 yards. Dorsett also could pass Franco Harris (3rd spot-12,120 yards) and Jim Brown (2nd-12,312) in 1986. Walter Payton is the NFL's all-time leading rusher with 14,860 yards going into 1986. Tony also can move into second behind Payton on the NFL's all-time combined yardage list.

Tony Hill becoming the all-time leading pass receiver in Cowboys history. With 430 career catches for 7,218 yards, Hill needs 59 catches and 604 yards to tie Drew Pearson's club record of 489 catches for 7,822 yards. Tony also can move into the NFL's top 20 all-time receivers. Art Powell holds the 20th spot with 479 catches. Hill also can extend his club record of catching a pass in 59 straight games.

Rafael Septien continuing his climb up the NFL's all-time scoring list. Septien broke into the top 20 in 1985 and enters 1986 in 18th spot with 872 points. He could move up this year to the 12th spot, currently held by Sam Baker with 977.

Everson Walls leading the NFL in interceptions for the fourth time in six NFL seasons. Last year Walls became the first player in NFL history to lead the league in interceptions three times (1981, '82, '85).

Randy White earning All-Pro honors for the ninth year in a row to extend his club record and being named to the Pro Bowl for the tenth straight year to tie Mel Renfro's team record for Pro Bowl appearances.

Ring of Honor

The Cowboys honor former players who made outstanding contributions to the club by inducting them into the Ring of Honor at Texas Stadium. Their names and the years they played are prominently displayed in silver on the wall below the press box at Texas Stadium. Members of the Cowboys' Ring of Honor:

BOB LILLY, defensive tackle, 1961-74. Nicknamed "Mr. Cowboy," Bob Lilly was the franchise's first draft choice in 1961, the first name in the Ring of Honor in 1975 and its first inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1979. A seven-time All-Pro, Lilly was named to a club-record 11 Pro Bowls. He was a two-time All-SWC pick and an All-America at Texas Christian University before being drafted by Dallas.

DON MEREDITH, quarterback, 1960-68. Don Meredith led the Cowboys to their first winning season and their first NFL Championship Game in 1966. Signed by Clint Murchison, Jr., before Dallas was granted its NFL franchise, "Dandy Don" played in two Pro Bowls and was named NFL player of the year in 1966. A two-time All-America at SMU, Don's name was added to the Cowboys' Ring of Honor in 1976.

DON PERKINS, running back, 1961-68. Don Perkins was the first Cowboys player to rush for more than 6,000 yards. A six-time Pro Bowl selection, Perkins finished among the top ten NFL rushers in each of his eight seasons. He was named NFL rookie of the year in 1961 and All-Pro in 1962. Perkins was signed before Dallas was granted its NFL francise. A three-time All-Skyline pick at New Mexico, he was inducted into the Ring of Honor in 1976.

CHUCK HOWLEY, linebacker, 1961-72. When Chuck Howley retired in 1973, Tom Landry said "I don't know that I've seen anybody better at linebacker than Howley." A six-time All-Pro, Howley was the most valuable player in Super Bowl V. The Cowboys traded for Howley, who was drafted by Chicago in 1958. He was an All-America center at West Virginia. A six-time Pro Bowl selection, Howley was added to the Ring of Honor in 1977.

MEL RENFRO, defensive back, 1964-77. Mel Renfro was named to the Pro Bowl his first ten seasons in the NFL. He is the club's all-time interceptor with 52 and kickoff returner with a 26.4-yard career average. Renfro was drafted in the second round in 1964 after a career as an All-America halfback and world class sprinter at Oregon. A five-time All-Pro, Renfro was inducted into the Cowboys' Ring of Honor in 1981.

ROGER STAUBACH, quarterback, 1969-79. Roger Staubach led the Cowboys to six NFC Championship Games, four Super Bowls and two Super Bowl titles. A great clutch performer, Staubach led Dallas to comeback victories 23 times, 14 in the last two minutes or overtime. A five-time Pro Bowler, he was drafted by Dallas in 1964 after winning the Heisman Trophy and Maxwell Award at the Naval Academy. Inducted into the Ring of Honor in 1983, Roger was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1985.

"THE WINNING OF THE EAST"

The NFL Films production of "The Winning of the East — The Story of the 1985 Dallas Cowboys" is available free of charge to groups wishing to show it.

The 30-minute, 16 mm sound and color movie is narrated by Brad Crandall and tells the story of the Cowboys' exciting roller coaster ride to the 1985 NFC Eastern Division championship. It was produced and directed by NFL Films Editor-in-Chief Bob Ryan. "The Winning of the East" marks Ryan's 20th consecutive Cowboys highlights film.

The film is sponsored by GTE and may be obtained for group showings by calling the Cowboys' office at 214/556-9900.

Historical Highlights

NFL FRANCHISE — Clint Murchison, Jr., and Bedford Wynne were awarded an expansion franchise in the NFL at the annual league meeting in Miami Beach, Fla. The Cowboys were to play as a "swing" team, playing every other team one time during the first season, although listed in the Western Conference standings (January 28).

COWBOYS STOCKED — A player pool was set up in a league meeting at L.A., with each of 12 NFL teams freezing 25 names on its roster and the Cowboys allowed to pick three from each team for a total of 36 veterans. Dallas, once given the list, had to select its 36 players within 24 hours (March 13).

TRAINING STARTS — Rookies report to first Cowboys camp at Pacific U., in Forest Grove, Oregon (July 9).

FIRST PRE-SEASON GAME — The Cowboys, less than six months in existence, get their first test and drop a 10-16 pre-season game to San Francisco in Seattle (August 6).

FIRST HOME GAME — In their Dallas debut, in the Salesmanship Club preseason game, the Cowboys led the world champion Baltimore Colts into the final minute before a 62-yard pass from Johnny Unitas to Lenny Moore gave the Colts a 14-10 victory (August 19).

FIRST VICTORY — In a preseason game at Louisville, Ky., the Cowboys beat New York's Giants, 14-3, with Frank Clarke catching touchdown passes of 73 yards (Eddie LeBaron) and 74 yards (Don Meredith) (August 27).

FIRST LEAGUE GAME — In their first league game, Dallas fell to Pittsburgh, 35-28, with Bobby Layne leading a fourth-period Steeler rally (Sept. 24, Saturday night).

STREAK SNAPPED — Dallas snaps a 10-game loss streak by tying New York, 31-31, at Yankee Stadium (Dec. 4).

TRAINING STARTS — Rookies launch training at new campsite — St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minn. (July 9).

FIRST LEAGUE WIN — Scoring ten points in the final 56 seconds, the Cowboys score their first NFL victory, 27-24, over Pittsburgh in the '61 league opener in the Cotton Bowl. Allen Green's 27-yard field goal on the game's final play won it before 23,500 (Sept. 17).

1962

TRAINING STARTS — Team begins training at new campsite — Northern Michigan College in Marquette, Mich. (July 13).

PENALTY HISTORY — For the first time in anyone's memory in an NFL game, points were awarded for a penalty. The Cowboys were detected holding in the end zone on a 99-yd. TD pass from LeBaron to Clarke, and Pittsburgh was awarded a safety. The Steelers eventually won, 30-28 (Sept. 23).

100-YARD FIRSTS — Cowboys Amos Marsh returned a kickoff 101 yards and Mike Gaechter returned a pass interception 100 yards, both plays for fourth-quarter TDs in a 41-19 win over Philadelphia in Dallas. It was the first time in NFL history that two 100-yard runs had been made in the same game, much less by the same team in the same quarter (Oct. 14).

SHIFT TO KANSAS CITY — The rival Dallas Texans of the AFL announce they are moving the franchise to Kansas City (Feb. 8).

CALIFORNIA TRAINING SITE — The Cowboys open training at California Lutheran College in Thousand Oaks, Calif. (July 12).

HOWTON SETS RECORD — Bill Howton broke Don Hutson's all-time receiving mark with a 14-yard catch against Washington (there). Hutson's record was 7,991 yards and the catch gave Howton an even 8,000 yards (Sept. 29).

1964

LANDRY CONTRACT — With one year to go on his original contract, Tom Landry is signed to a ten-year extension, in effect giving him an 11-year pact, possibly the longest in major pro sports history (Feb. 5).

1965

FIRST SELLOUT — An overflow crowd of 76,251 jams the Cotton Bowl for the Cleveland game, notching the team's first home sellout. Cleveland won, 24-17 (Nov. 21).

1966

PLAYOFF BOWL — After defeating New York, 38-20, in the season finale (and winning five of their last seven games) to get into the Playoff Bowl at Miami, the Cowboys fall to Baltimore, 35-3 (Jan. 15).

MERGER — Peace comes to pro football with Cowboys GM Tex Schramm completing two months of negotiations with AFL's Lamar Hunt, merging the two leagues under the NFL banner (June 8).

SCHRAMM ELEVATED — Texas E. Schramm, Vice-President and General Manager of the Cowboys from the beginning, was named President of the club by owner Clint Murchison, Jr., who retained the title of Chairman of the Board.

NEELY CASE SOLVED — Dallas and Houston reached agreement in the Ralph Neely case. Neely remained with Dallas with Houston receiving the Cowboys Nos. 1, 2 and two fifth place picks in the 1967 draft (Nov. 17).

THE CHAMPIONSHIP — The Cowboys won their first championship, capturing the Eastern Conference title with a 10-3-1 record, but lost the NFL Championship Game to Green Bay, 34-27.

TEXAS STADIUM — On Dec. 23, owner Clint Murchison, Jr., formally announced plans to build Texas Stadium in suburban Irving. The stadium, to be financed through a bond-option plan, would be ready for the 1970 season. The stadium would seat a minimum of 58,000.

SECOND CHAMPIONSHIP — Under the NFL's new format, the Cowboys easily won the Capitol Division and defeated Cleveland, Century Division winner, 52-14, in the Cotton Bowl for the Eastern conference championship. However, on Dec. 31 in Green Bay, the Cowboys lost their second bid for an NFL title, falling to the Packers, 21-17, in the 13 degree below weather.

1968

WIN CAPITOL — For the second straight year the Cowboys won the Capitol Division, but for the first time in three years the Cowboys did not win the Eastern Championship, being upset at Cleveland, 31-20, on December 21st. Dallas won the Runner-Up Bowl over Minnesota, 17-13.

1969

TEXAS STADIUM — Ground was broken for Texas Stadium in suburban Irving on January 25, and on June 29 Bert Rose was named general manager of the stadium.

ORIGINALS RETIRE — An era ended for the Cowboys in July. On July 5th at a press conference in Dallas, quarterback Don Meredith, the last of the original Cowboys, announced his retirement. Then, on July 18th, the day the veterans were to report to training camp, all-time rushing great Don Perkins officially retired.

REPEAT CAPITOL WINS — Once again the Cowboys rolled to the Capitol Division Championship with an 11-2-1 season. However, the Cowboys failed to win the Eastern Championship when on Dec. 28, the Cowboys lost to Cleveland, 38-14, in the Cotton Bowl.

FIVE STRAIGHT PLAYOFFS — The Cowboys won their last five games to finish 10-4, claim the Eastern Division championship and make the playoffs for the fifth year in a row. They defeated Detroit, 5-0, in the opening round to get a shot at the National Conference championship.

FIRST NFC TITLE — The Cowboys captured the biggest prize of their 11-year history on Jan. 3 when they downed San Francisco, 17-10, for the NFC crown. A 16-13 loss to Baltimore in the Super Bowl Jan. 17 left Dallas with one major goal still unrealized.

TEXAS STADIUM — The Cowboys opened a new era in their sparkling Irving, Tex., home with a 44-21 victory over the New England Patriots on October 24. Duane Thomas scored the first touchdown in the new stadium, a 56-yard run just two minutes and 16 seconds after the opening kickoff. Attendance was 65,708.

SIX STRAIGHT PLAYOFFS — The Cowboys won their last seven games to finish 11-3, claim the Eastern Division championship and make the playoffs for the sixth year in a row. They defeated Minnesota, 20-12, in the opening round.

SECOND NFC TITLE — For the second consecutive year, the Cowboys met the San Francisco 49ers in the National Conference showdown. This time Dallas won, 14-3, to qualify for its second straight Super Bowl.

FIRST WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP — The Cowboys downed the Miami Dolphins, 24-3, to win Super Bowl VI in New Orleans on Jan. 16. It was the 10th victory in a row for Dallas as Roger Staubach passed for two touchdowns and was named the game's Most Valuable Player.

FIRST 1,000-YARD BACK — Calvin Hill became the first Dallas player to rush for 1,000 yards when he gained 111 on Dec. 9 against the Washington Redskins in Texas Stadium. Hill wound up with 1,036 yards for the season on a record 245 carries.

SEVEN STRAIGHT PLAYOFFS — The Cowboys qualified for the NFL playoffs a record seventh consecutive year, their 10-4 record earning them the National Conference Wild Card berth. Roger Staubach passed for two touchdowns in the last 1½ minutes to give the Cowboys a 30-28 victory at San Francisco in the first round. Then, at Washington on New Year's Eve, Dallas was foiled in its bid for a third straight NFL title when the Redskins won, 26-3.

100 VICTORIES — The Cowboys and Coach Tom Landry recorded their 100th victory with a 40-3 Texas Stadium win over the New Orleans Saints on Sept. 24. Landry, the only head coach the Cowboys have had, ended the season with a career mark of 108-80-6 to rank ninth on the list of the NFL's all-time winningest coaches.

EIGHT STRAIGHT PLAYOFFS — The Cowboys regained the NFC Eastern Division title with a 10-4 record and broke their own NFL record by reaching the playoffs for the eighth year in a row. Dallas defeated Western Division champion Los Angeles in the first round, 27-16, but fell to Central Division winner Minnesota in the NFC Championship Game, 27-10.

1974

FIRST TOP DRAFT CHOICE — For the first time in their history, the Cowboys had the very first choice in the NFL college draft. The No. 1 pick came to Dallas from Houston in exchange for Tody Smith and Billy Parks. The Cowboys selected Ed "Too Tall" Jones, a 6-9, 260-pound defensive end from Tennessee State.

PLAYOFFS MISSED — The Cowboys' record-breaking string of eight straight years in the NFL playoffs was broken when the club's 8-6 record failed to qualify.

LILLY HONORED — "Mr. Cowboy" was honored on Bob Lilly Day at Texas Stadium at halftime of the Philadelphia game on Nov. 23. It was the first such recognition ever given to a Dallas player. Lilly never missed a game in 14 years with the Cowboys, earning All-Pro honors seven times at defensive tackle before retiring prior to the '75 season.

TEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — The Cowboys' 10-4 record earned them the NFC Wild Card berth in the playoffs. The composite record over 10 straight winning seasons was 101-37-2.

THIRD NFC TITLE — After shocking Minnesota in the first round, 17-14 on Roger Staubach's 50-yard "Hail Mary" pass to Drew Pearson, the Cowboys traveled to Los Angeles for the NFC showdown. Staubach threw four touchdown passes, three to Preston Pearson, and Dallas won, 37-7. Pittsburgh won Super Bowl X on Jan. 18 in Miami, 21-17.

MEREDITH, PERKINS HONORED — Former Cowboys greats Don Meredith and Don Perkins joined Bob Lilly in the "Ring of Honor" at Texas Stadium during halftime ceremonies at the New York Giants game on Nov. 7.

ELEVEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — The Cowboys won the NFC Eastern Division title with their 11-3 record, giving them their 11th straight winning season and 10th playoff berth in that period. A 14-12 first round loss to Los Angeles — the first time Dallas had lost in the first round under the current playoff setup — ended the season.

1977

HOWLEY HONORED — Former All-Pro linebacker Chuck Howley, a Cowboy from 1961 through 1973, became the fourth member of the Ring of Honor. Howley was honored during ceremonies at halftime of the Detroit Lions game on Oct. 30.

TWELVE STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — Getting off to an 8-0 start, their best ever, the Cowboys rolled to a 12-2 record, the championship of the NFC East, and their 12th consecutive winning season. They opened their 11th visit to the playoffs in those 12 years with a 37-7 first-round victory over the Chicago Bears at Texas Stadium.

FOURTH NFC TITLE — Dallas crushed the Minnesota Vikings at Texas Stadium, 23-6, for National Conference crown No. 4 and the right to meet the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XII.

SECOND WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP — The Cowboys stopped the Denver Broncos, 27-10, to win Super Bowl XII in New Orleans on January 15, 1978. In the process, Dallas tied Minnesota for most Super Bowl appearances (four) and Green Bay, Miami and Pittsburgh for most Super Bowl victories (two). Defensive linemen Harvey Martin and Randy White were named co-Most Valuable Players in the game.

THIRTEEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — After a mediocre 6-4 start, the Cowboys won six straight games to finish the expanded regular season with a 12-4 record and their 10th division crown. It marked the Cowboys' 13th consecutive winning season and 12th trip to the playoffs in that span. Dallas rallied to beat Atlanta 27-20 in a divisional playoff at Texas Stadium, sending the Cowboys to their seventh NFC championship game in the past nine years.

FIFTH NFC TITLE — Dallas shut out the Rams in Los Angeles 28-0 in the National Conference title game to advance to the Super Bowl a record fifth time, including three of the last four. In the first Super Bowl rematch, Pittsburgh edged the Cowboys 35-31 for the NFL championship on Jan. 21 in Miami's Orange Bowl.

TWENTIETH ANNIVERSARY — The Cowboys celebrated their 20th anniversary season at halftime of the St. Louis Cardinals game at Texas Stadium on Oct. 21. Stars from each of those 20 seasons plus Coach Tom Landry were introduced during the halftime ceremonies.

FOURTH STRAIGHT NFC EAST TITLE — Rallying from a mid-season slump, the Cowboys won their final three games to finish with an 11-5 record, their 11th division championship, including the past four NFC East titles, and 14th consecutive winning season. The Cowboys made their 13th trip to the playoffs in those 14 years, but were eliminated by Los Angeles 21-19 in a divisional playoff at Texas Stadium.

STAUBACH RETIRES — At a press conference at Texas Stadium on March 31, quarterback Roger Staubach announced his retirement after 11 record-breaking years with the Cowboys. Staubach held all major Cowboys passing records and was the all-time leading NFL passer.

LILLY ENTERS HALL OF FAME — Bob Lilly, a seven-time All-Pro defensive tackle in his 14-year career with the Cowboys from 1961-74, became the first Cowboys-only player to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Enshrined along with Lilly on Aug. 2 at Canton, Ohio, were Herb Adderley, who played for the Cowboys from 1970-72, Jim Otto and Deacon Jones.

FIFTEEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — Behind new starting quarterback Danny White, the Cowboys rolled to their 15th consecutive winning season with a surprising 12-4 record, tied for best in the league with Philadelphia and Atlanta. The Cowboys lost the NFC East title to Philadelphia on a tie-breaker, but entered the playoffs for the 14th time in 15 years, this time as a wild card team. The Cowboys beat Los Angeles 34-13 at Texas Stadium in the NFC Wild Card Game and rallied past the Falcons at Atlanta 30-27 to advance to the NFC Championship Game at Philadelphia. But the Cowboys lost 20-7 in their bid for a sixth Super Bowl appearance.

LANDRY'S 200th VICTORY — Tom Landry joined George Halas and Curly Lambeau as the only coaches with 200 NFL victories when the Cowboys beat Los Angeles 34-13 on Dec. 28 at Texas Stadium in the NFC Wild Card Game, raising Landry's record to 200-119-6, counting regular season and playoff games.

RENFRO HONORED — Former All-Pro defensive back Mel Renfro, the Cowboys' all-time leading pass interceptor, became the fifth member of the Cowboys' Ring of Honor. Renfro, who played for Dallas from 1964 through 1977, was honored during halftime ceremonies of the Cowboys-Miami Dolphins game at Texas Stadium Oct. 25.

TWELFTH DIVISION CHAMPIONSHIP — The Cowboys regained the NFC Eastern Division Championship, their 12th division title since 1966, with a 12-4 record and tied Oakland's NFL mark of 16 consecutive winning seasons. Entering the playoffs for the 15th time in that span, the Cowboys advanced to the NFC Championship Game for the ninth time in 12 years by routing Tampa Bay 38-0 at Texas Stadium. But for the second year in a row Dallas lost the conference title game. San Francisco scored a last-minute touchdown at Candlestick Park to edge the Cowboys 28-27 for a berth in Super Bowl XVI.

200TH REGULAR-SEASON VICTORY — The Cowboys beat Washington 24-10 at RFK Stadium on Dec. 5 for the club's and Coach Tom Landry's 200th regular-season victory.

SEVENTEEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — The Cowboys finished the strike-shortened regular season with a 6-3 record to establish an NFL record of 17 consecutive winning seasons. Entering the playoffs for a record-tying eighth straight year and for the 16th time in 17 years, the Cowboys beat Tampa Bay 30-17 and Green Bay 37-26, both at Texas Stadium, to advance to the NFC Championship Game for the third year in a row. But again the Cowboys come up short, losing 31-17 at Washington.

STAUBACH HONORED — Former quarterback Roger Staubach, who led the Cowboys to four Super Bowls, became the sixth member of the Ring of Honor during halftime ceremonies of the Cowboys-Tampa Bay game on Oct. 9.

NEW HEADQUARTERS — Ground was broken on Nov. 29 for the Cowboys' new headquarters and training facility at The Valley Ranch in northwest Dallas County.

EIGHTEEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — The Cowboys extended their NFL record to 18 consecutive winning seasons with a 12-4 finish. The club also set a league record with its ninth straight playoff appearance, qualifying as a wild card entry. The Los Angeles Rams eliminated the Cowboys from the playoffs, however, with a 24-17 upset victory at Texas Stadium in the NFC Wild Card Game on Dec. 26.

SILVER SEASON — The Cowboys kicked off their 25th anniversary with a news conference at Texas Stadium on Jan. 27. Club President Tex Schramm announced the Cowboys would celebrate their 25th anniversary during 1984 under the theme "Silver Season."

CLUB SOLD — The sale of the Cowboys from the Murchison family to an 11-member limited partnership headed by Dallas businessman H. R. "Bum" Bright was approved by NFL owners on March 19 at the league's annual meeting in Honolulu. The sale was completed on May 18.

COWBOYS CENTER — The Cowboys and Triland International announced plans on March 27 for Cowboys Center, an innovative joint venture that will develop business opportunities in a conference center, Cowboys ShowPlace, athletic club, sports arena, office park, housing, and retail and restaurant outlets on 200 acres at The Valley Ranch, adjacent to the Cowboys' new headquarters.

NINETEEN STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS — The Cowboys defeated the Eagles 26-10 in Philadelphia to extend their NFL record to 19 consecutive winning seasons. The Cowboys finished 9-7 and missed the playoffs for the first time in 10 years and only the second time in 19 years.

STAUBACH ENTERS HALL OF FAME — Roger Staubach, the master of the comeback victory during his 11-year career as a Cowboys quarterback, was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. Enshrined with Staubach on Aug. 3 at Canton, Ohio, were Pete Rozelle, Joe Namath, O. J. Simpson and Frank Gatski. Staubach joined Bob Lilly as the only players who spent their entire career with the Cowboys to be elected to the Hall of Fame.

TEXAS STADIUM IMPROVEMENTS — Texas Stadium unveiled a new look when the Cowboys opened their preseason schedule against Green Bay on Aug. 10. The stadium became the first with two DiamondVision color scoreboards, and the addition of 118 Crown Suites gave Texas Stadium more private suites, 296, than any stadium in the nation.

COWBOYS RANCH OPENS — Cowboys players and coaches reported on Aug. 27 to the team's new headquarters and training facility at Cowboys Center in Valley Ranch.

DORSETT PASSES 10,000 YARDS — On a 19-yard sweep around left end, Tony Dorsett became the sixth player in NFL history to rush for 10,000 yards. Dorsett's feat highlighted a 27-13 victory over Pittsburgh at Texas Stadium on Oct. 13.

THIRTEENTH DIVISION CHAMPIONSHIP — The Cowboys edged the New York Giants 28-21 on Dec. 15 at Texas Stadium to capture the NFC Eastern Division championship for the first time since 1981. Picked in most season previews to finish third or fourth in the division, the Cowboys rallied for their NFL record 20th consecutive winning season, a 13th division title in 20 years and a playoff berth for the 18th time in that span. But in their NFL record 36th playoff game appearance, the Cowboys fell 20-0 to the Los Angeles Rams in Anaheim Stadium on Jan. 4.

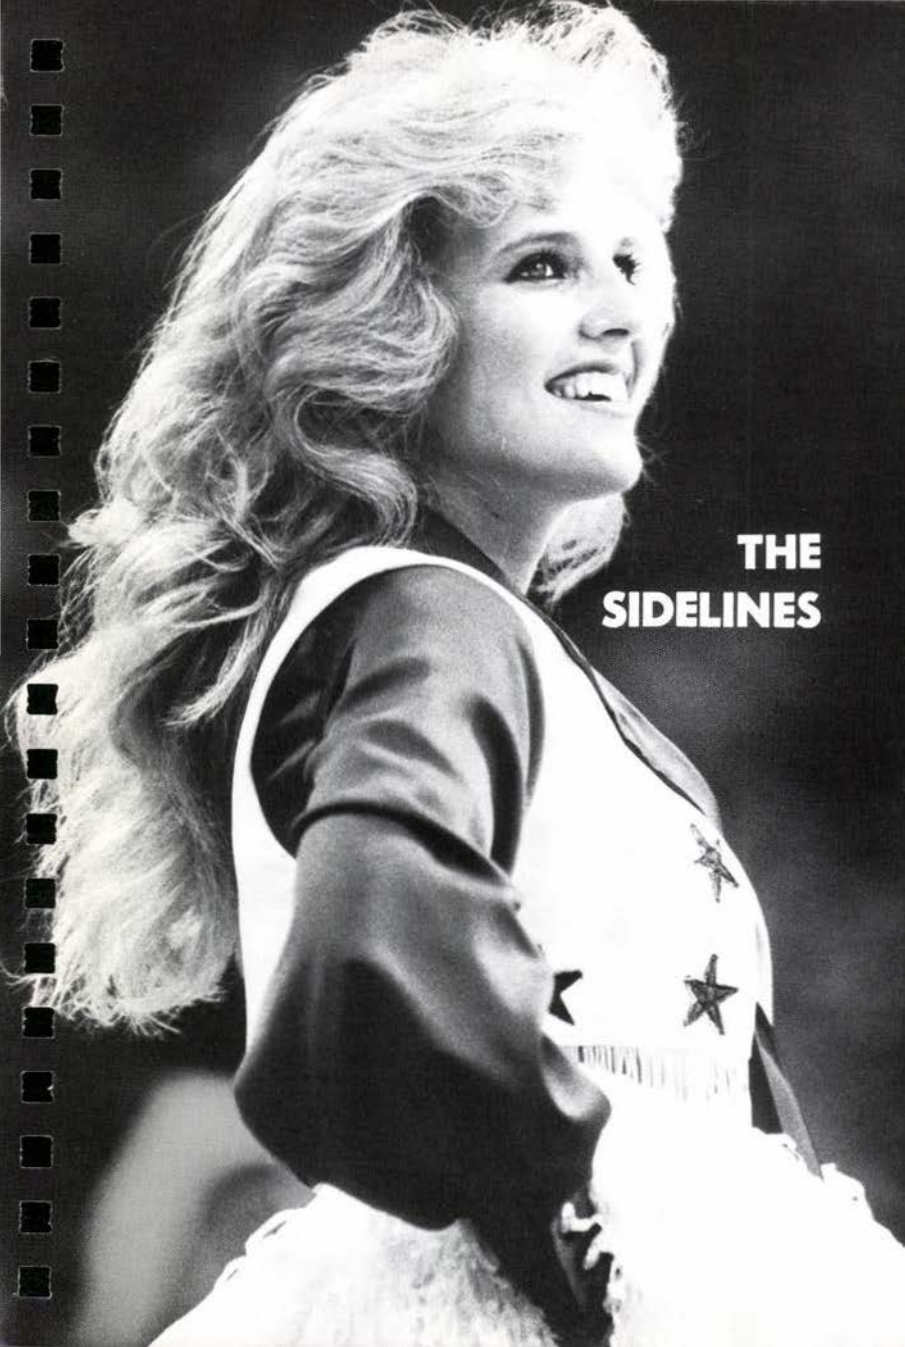
COWBOYS GO TO LONDON — The Cowboys began preparations for their first trip to a foreign country when the NFL announced on March 12 that the Cowboys would play the Super Bowl champion Chicago Bears in a preseason game at London's Wembley Stadium on Aug. 3.



THE

Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders

When the Cowboys introduced the 'new' Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders at Texas Stadium in 1972, they wanted to have a bright new look on the playing field and add another form of entertainment for the football fan. Little did they know that they were starting something that one day would become what is now considered a phenomenon.

Those who participated in the Cheerleaders' formation couldn't have foreseen what would happen on a sunny January day in Miami four years later when, at Super Bowl X, the cheerleaders would capture the imagination of a nation. With a stroke of luck and a winning football team it all came together.

The phenomenon, however, has not been restricted to Texas Stadium and the television eye that has carried their image across the country. Armed Forces in remote outposts throughout the world, children and veterans in hospital wards plus state fair and college audiences have all experienced the joy of the D.C.C. Because of their freshness and smiles, their beauty and talent, these young women bring a touch of happiness to everyone they meet.

THE COWBOYS BAND

The 28-member Dallas Cowboys Band, a brass arrangement featuring a variety of musical sounds from country and western to rock 'n roll, again will be a central ingredient during Cowboys games at Texas Stadium. Under the direction of Bill Lively, associate vice president for development at Southern Methodist University in Dallas, the Cowboys Band is a vital part of all Texas Stadium pre-game, halftime and post-game activity. The Cowboys Band also is available for conventions, community concerts and other occasions.

Cowboys on Radio

The Cowboys again in 1986 will have the largest radio network in the National Football League as Texas State Network begins its fifth season broadcasting Cowboys games to America. With KRLD Radio of Dallas serving as the flagship station, TSN's Dallas Cowboys Network will be carried on 162 stations in 13 states. Play-by-play announcer Brad Sham is joined again this year by analyst Dale Hansen. In addition, TSN will carry all Cowboys games in Spanish on 11 stations in two states via the Dallas Cowboys Spanish Radio Network with broadcasters Armando Quintero and Mario Montez.

Cowboys on Television

"Ticket to Training Camp"

In 1986, the Cowboys presented their fans a unique opportunity to follow the team's development in training camp through a live via satellite daily (Monday-Saturday), two-hour cable television show called "Ticket to Training Camp." Produced by Lee Martin Productions of Dallas and hosted by Cowboys President Tex Schramm, this unprecedented show from Thousand Oaks, Calif., offered live coverage of scrimmages and practice drills, player, coach, front office and special celebrity interviews, a telephone call-in line for fans, plus spot news coverage.

"Dallas Cowboys Weekly"

Cowboys President Tex Schramm and co-host Lee Martin began their ninth season in 1986 bringing Cowboys fans the inside story on the team with the "Dallas Cowboys Weekly" television show. This popular inside look at how the Cowboys work is presented in a lively, half-hour, magazine-style format every week during the season from training camp through the playoffs. Produced and syndicated by Lee Martin Productions, "Dallas Cowboys Weekly" is seen on a seven-state network of 24 stations, the largest network in the nation for a magazine show about a sports team:

ARIZONA: Phoenix, Cable TV of Phoenix; CALIFORNIA: Oxnard, KTIE; ILLINOIS: Chicago, Sportsvision; LOUISIANA: Shreveport, KMSS; NEW MEXICO: Las Cruces, KASK; Roswell, KBIM. OKLAHOMA: Oklahoma City, KAUT; Tulsa, KGCT. "The Tom Landry Show"

Coach Tom Landry gives fans a personal weekly analysis of his team from the opening of the regular season through the playoffs in "The Tom Landry Show." Landry and host Brad Sham provide a video-tape review of each week's Cowboys game, a preview of the upcoming opponent, special features and interviews plus predictions of upcoming NFL games. The show is produced and syndicated by Lee Martin Productions and seen on the largest network in the nation, 24 stations in seven states, for a coach's show:

"Dallas Cowboys Weekly"

The largest team publication in sports is the "Dallas Cowboys Weekly," circulation 72,000. Edited by Steve Perkins, the 12-year-old Weekly reaches Cowboys fans across the nation 32 times a year with coverage of all aspects of the club. The Weekly includes 48 pages of game action photos and stories, the popular "Ask Tex Schramm" column, "Tom Landry's View," At Home with the Cowboys, the Cheerleaders centerfold, lots of color action photos and more. A Spanish-language edition of Cowboys Weekly appears in Mexico City and Monterrey, Mexico.

"Dallas Cowboys Annual Season Preview Magazine"

The club created its newest publication in 1986. The "Dallas Cowboys Annual Season Preview" is a 102-page, full-color magazine published in July and filled with stories and photos about the team and its prospects for the upcoming season, plus a full-color Cowboys Cheerleaders swimsuit feature. The magazine is available on newsstands or with a subscription to the Cowboys Weekly newspaper. There was an initial printing of 200,000 copies. A Spanish-language edition is available in Mexico.

"Dallas Cowboys Bluebook"

This hard-cover annual collector's item is available in bookstores and is a Cowboys fan's only authoritative reference guide. Published by Taylor Publishing Company of Dallas, Bluebook VII includes team and individual statistics and records, player biographies, color photos, plus features on players, coaches, the front office and the Cowboys Cheerleaders.

The Cowboys and You

Cowboys Center

This innovative multi-use project will offer Cowboys fans a variety of experiences from tours of the club's headquarters, to a day at Cowboys ShowPlace, to ice skating at the North Texas Ice Arena, all on 200 acres in Valley Ranch (see pages 6-7).

Cowboys Tickets

The Cowboys limit their annual season ticket sales to 50,000, leaving nearly 15,000 tickets per game available to fans on a single-game basis. The Cowboys have sold out 65 of their past 67 games at Texas Stadium. Ticket outlet information is available on the inside front cover of this book.

Dallas Cowboys Travel

Dallas Cowboys Travel is a fast-growing, full-service travel agency specializing in corporate and personal travel for a variety of clients. Special "Cowboys Weekend" packages, including luxurious accommodations at the D-FW Hilton, cocktail reception, game-day brunch, game tickets, tours of Cowboys Ranch and transfers to the game and airport, are available through Cowboys Travel. Cowboys Travel has three offices in the Dallas area, including the main office in Cowboys Ranch (214/556-2800).

Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders Fitness & Dance Academy

Located in Cowboys Ranch, the Cowboys Cheerleaders Fitness & Dance Academy offers aerobics, jazz, ballet and tap to females and males of all ages in a modern studio setting. The instructors are the Cowboys Cheerleaders' choreographers and former Cheerleaders. The studio also is used for rehearsals by the Cowboys Cheerleaders. Call 214/556-9999 for further information.

Cowboys Ranch Tours & Cowboys Pro Shop

Public tours of the club's new headquarters and training facility now are available. Call Cindy Birne at 214/556-9900 for information. The Cowboys' Pro Shop offers both Cowboys and Cowboys Cheerleaders souvenir merchandise, including authentic game jerseys and coaches' sweaters, t-shirts, caps, etc. The Pro Shop is located next to the Cowboys Ticket Office in Cowboys Ranch.

Limited Instant Replay System to Be Used in 1986

At the NFL Annual Meeting in March 1986, the clubs adopted (by a 23-4-1 vote) a one-year system of limited Instant Replay of officiating calls for 1986.

The NFL has discussed Instant Replay in some degree or other since the early 1970s. The League experimented in 1976 and 1978 using two basic frameworks—an independent system using cameras, replay machines, and technicians separate from the network covering the game, and a "no frills" approach using existing television coverage.

In 1985, the NFL used the network feed of nine nationally televised preseason games to experiment with the basic system that later was adopted for 1986. A total of 28 plays were examined closely (17 confirmed call, 4 were inconclusive, 1 was reversed, and 6 had no replay shown).

What is the objective of this system?

The clubs feel that on certain plays the telecast viewed by the general public should be used to correct an indisputable error. The system will be used to reverse an on-field decision only when the Replay Official has indisputable visual evidence available to him that warrants the change.

Is the television network carrying the game part of the review process?

No. Although the Replay Official will be viewing the live network feed, there is no communication to television personnel as to what plays to show or not to show.

What is the step-by-step procedure of a play review?

The Replay Official will view game action and a play will be replayed immediately on one of the two monitors, while the other monitor continues to record the live feed.

The Replay Official makes a determination if further study of the play is needed. If not, there is no contact with the field and play continues.

If the Replay Official believes an error may have been made, the Umpire will be contacted (via a paging device worn at the beltline), and he then will use a walkie-talkie for further communication with the Replay Official.

The Replay Official will watch replay(s) on one or both monitors and complete his review within a reasonable period (probably 15-20 seconds) after the play is over. (If there is a time out, the Replay Official would not be restricted to the 15-20-second period.)

The Replay Official will inform the Umpire of his decision, and the Referee will make the appropriate announcement on the wireless microphone.

The limited Instant Replay system concentrates on plays of possession or touching (e.g., fumbles, receptions, interceptions, muffs) and most plays governed by the sidelines, goal lines, end lines, and line of scrimmage (e.g., receiver or runner in or out of bounds, forward or backward passes, breaking the plane of the goal line).

However, the Instant Replay system will not include the following fouls: clipping; encroachment and offsides; grasp of facemask; false start; defensive pass interference; offensive pass interference; offensive holding and illegal use of hands; illegal batting or punching ball; illegal block on free kick or scrimmage kick; illegal crackback; illegal motion; illegal use of forearm or elbow; illegal use of hands by defense; illegally kicking the ball; illegally snapping the ball; intentional grounding; member of the punting team downfield early; illegal formation; palpably unfair act; piling on; roughing the passer; running into or roughing the kicker; striking, kicking, or kneeing; unnecessary roughness; unsportsmanlike conduct; and use of the helmet as a weapon.

GTE'S THE NAME. COMMUNICATION'S OUR GAME.

GTE'S TEAM AT TEXAS STADIUM.

GTE. THE FIRST STRING.

For days before the opening whistle, the GTE game plan is going strong. Our first-string players are installing and testing phones for the press box, coin and emergency phones for the fans, special circuits for the radio broadcast, sideline phones for the coaches and players, video and audio equipment for the television networks.

Thirteen years and a perfect record. GTE and the Dallas Cowboys. Because in all that time not one single second of Cowboy excitement has ever missed being broadcast from Texas Stadium to football fans across America. Because General Telephone is part of one of the world's leading telecommunications companies.

That's why we're pros in Business Phone Systems, too. From small office systems to sophisticated datacom networks, GTE has the products, skills, and people to help you score in the competitive business game. High-speed satellite transmissions or a phone system that's expandable from 60 phones to 60,000 — we match your growth needs stride for stride.

We're in the Communications business to help your business. We'll huddle with you in choosing the right system. And our expert technicians will be on your team, giving you the best in service and attention through whole seasons of quality telecommunications.
